1.0 Purpose of Report

To progress the review and implementation of both Council's Safeguarding Policy & Procedures for Children and Safeguarding Policy & Procedures for Adults.

2.0 Background

Council has been working with the NSPCC to review and update both of these policies & procedures. The purpose of these policies and their respective associated procedures is to help protect the children, young people and adults at risk who use our services and to ensure that Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council employees, agency workers, volunteers and elected members are aware of issues that can cause children, young people and adults at risk harm and take effective action to protect them.

By complying fully with these policies and procedures, Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council seeks to ensure that employees, agency workers, volunteers and elected members are also protected whilst carrying out their duties.

Both the Safeguarding Children & Young People Policy and Procedures and Safeguarding Adults Policy & Procedures were approved by Council in January 2020.

The Safeguarding Children Policy & Procedures and Safeguarding Adults Policy & Procedure are to be reviewed every three years (as clearly stated within each Policy itself)

3.0 Current position

The Safeguarding Children Policy & Procedures (Annex A) and Safeguarding Adults Policy & Procedures (Annex B) have been reviewed and developed in conjunction with the NSPCC to reflect current legislation and the practices within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.

Both policy & procedures have been created separately as the applicable legislation, procedures, guidance, and definitions are significantly different.

The Safeguarding Children Policy & Procedures and Safeguarding Adults Policy & Procedures have been screened in accordance with Council's duty under Section 75 Equality Legislation

4.0 Audit Recommendations

An Audit report on the Safeguarding policies was presented to Council in December 2022. A number of recommendations were included which have been accounted for in the revised policy documents and associated operational and training procedures for council employees and councillors.

- Accountability and Responsibilities (including training).
- Designated Safeguarding Officers Details contained within the Policy.
- Raising Awareness of Councils response to safeguarding.

5.0 Next Steps

The responsibility for the Senior Management Team and overall accountability of the Chief Executive have been included in the revised draft policy documents as Safeguarding is deemed a corporate responsibility.

As per the Policy & Procedures training schedule, an appropriate training provider is being procured and training will be rolled out to all employees, agency workers, volunteers, and councillors. This is due to commence once the draft policies & procedures have been approved.

A Parental / Carer Safeguarding information leaflet will be developed and distributed throughout Council's facilities. The form will also be available on-line.

Officers will work internally with other service areas to create a Safeguarding info page on Council's website, accessible by all staff, councillors, and the general public.

6.0 Recommendation

It is recommended that the Leisure and Development Committee notes the work to date in the revision of these policies and procedures and recommends to Council the adoption of the Safeguarding Children Policy & Procedures and Safeguarding Adults Policy & Procedures.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

NSPCC stands for the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. They are the leading children's charity in the UK, specialising in child protection and dedicated to the fight for every childhood. They are the only UK children's charity with statutory powers and that means they can take action to safeguard children at risk of abuse.

As the UK's leading child protection charity, we understand the child protection issues that people working with children and organisations can face.

The standards in this policy are built upon Information taken from the following guidance and legislation:

- NSPCC which was developed from legislation
- UN Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989 (UNCRC International Treaty)
- The Children (NI) Order 1995
- Co-operating to Safeguard Children and Young People in Northern Ireland (2016)
- Criminal Law Act (NI) 1967
- Data Protection Act 1998
- Disability Discrimination Act
- Sexual Offences (NI) Order 2008
- The Sexual Offences Act 2003
- The Criminal Justice (NI) Order 2008
- Rehabilitation of Offenders (Exceptions) Order (NI) 1979.
- AccessNI
- Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (NI) Order 2007
- Protection of Freedoms Act 2012

For the purposes of this policy The Children Order defines a 'child' as a person under the age of 18.

DEFINITION OF SAFEGUARDING AND CHILD PROTECTION

Safeguarding is more than child protection. Safeguarding begins with promotion and preventative activity which enables children and young people to grow up safely and securely in circumstances where their development and wellbeing is not adversely affected. It includes support to families and early intervention to meet the needs of children and continues through to child protection. Child protection refers specifically to the activity that is undertaken to protect individual children or young people who are suffering or are likely to suffer significant harm.

(Co-Operating to Safeguard Children and Young People in Northern Ireland, August 2017)

Children and young people have the right to live their lives to the fullest potential, to be protected, to be able to participate in and enjoy activities and to be treated with dignity and respect. There is a considerable body of legislation, government guidance and standards designed to ensure that these groups are protected from harm.

Everybody has a responsibility for the safety of children and young people and in accordance with relevant legislation Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council, as an organisation which has significant contacts with children and young people across its services, has both a moral and legal obligation to ensure a duty of care.

The purpose of this policy and its associated procedures is to help protect the children and young people who use our services and to ensure that Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council employees, volunteers, and elected members are aware of issues that can cause children and young people harm and take effective action to protect them. By complying fully with the policies and procedures, Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council seeks to ensure that employees, volunteers, and elected members are also protected whilst carrying out their duties.

These Safeguarding Children & Young People policies and procedures were written in conjunction with the NSPCC Training and Consultancy team in NI. The NSPCC do not take responsibility for the implementation of these Policies and Procedure in Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.

2.0 POLICY STATEMENT, AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

2.1 Aims

Every child and young person has a right to feel safe and protected and, as a provider of public facilities and services, Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is committed to creating and maintaining the safest possible environment for the children and young people who use our facilities and come into contact with members of our workforce. We recognise our duty of care and want to ensure that all our service users are protected from harm while they visit our premises. This Safeguarding Children policy and procedures have been created separately from our Safeguarding Adult Policies and Procedures as the applicable legislation, procedures, guidance and definitions are significantly different. The following policies and procedures outline the systems and procedures in place in order to take all reasonable steps to protect children and young people using our facilities and services from harm, discrimination, or degrading treatment whilst respecting their rights, wishes, and feelings.

The Council aims to do this by:

- Recognising that all children and young people have the right to freedom from abuse and protection from harm.
- Putting in place robust recruitment procedures to ensure that those individuals whose behaviour could be a threat to the safety and well-being of children and young people are not offered employment.
- Raising the awareness of the duty of care responsibilities throughout the Council.
- Actively encouraging good practice amongst all employees, volunteers, and elected members throughout the Council and promoting wider awareness wherever possible, i.e., partnership organisations and user groups.
- Creating a safe and healthy environment within all our services, avoiding situations where abuse or allegations of abuse may occur.
- Respecting and promoting the rights, wishes, and feelings of children and young people and working closely with other agencies.
- Recruiting, training, supervising, and supporting employees who work with children and young people to adopt best practice to safeguard and protect children and young people from abuse, and themselves against false allegations. Employees who work with children and young people will be subject to the appropriate level employment checks. All appropriate new staff will be inducted on these policy and procedures with sign-off from line managers’
- Responding to any allegations appropriately and implementing the appropriate disciplinary and appeals procedures.
- Requiring employees, volunteers, and elected members to follow the Council’s Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy and Procedures.

- Having in place Designated Safeguarding Officers who will be trained appropriately to co-ordinate children and young people safeguarding issues and give advice. Please note, certain Council facilities / services operate outside of 9am – 5pm, therefore, this may result in an Officer in Charge (of the facility at the time) rather than a Designated Officer being onsite outside of these hours. The Officer in Charge will, in the first instance, contact the Designated Officer to address the concern. If this is not possible, the Officer in Charge will contact Gateway themselves and feed back to the Designated Officer when they become available.
- Ensuring confidentiality where appropriate is maintained and that access to confidential information is restricted to the appropriate authorities.
- Carrying out a regular audit and review of the effectiveness of our Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy and Procedures.
- Helping to maintain professionalism and standards of service which are associated with best practice provision.

2.2 Objectives

The Council's objectives to achieve these aims are:

- To provide appropriate training for all appropriate employees, volunteers and elected members
- To aid employees, volunteers, and elected members to respond sensitively and seriously to anyone who discloses information about abuse and be confident and able to take appropriate action swiftly, regardless of whom the allegation is about.
- To promote the general welfare and well-being of children and young people within Council facilities and services.
- To develop and implement effective procedures for recording and responding to complaints of alleged or suspected child / young person abuse

3.0 DEFINITIONS

Throughout this document 'children or child' is used. Unless specifically mentioned this relates to 'children and young people'.

- The term children or young person is used to refer to anyone under the age of 18 years as defined in the Children (NI) Order 1995
- The term parent is used as a generic term to represent parents, carers and guardians.
- The term employees and elected members is used to refer to employees, District Councilors' and anyone working on behalf of and/or representing the Council.
- A volunteer is anyone who without compensation or expectation of compensation (other than reimbursement of agreed expenses, e.g., mileage) performs a task at the direction of and on behalf of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.

4.0 RECOGNISING ABUSE

Recognising child abuse is not easy. It is not our responsibility in Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council to decide whether or not child abuse has taken place or if a child or young person is at significant risk of harm from someone. We do, however, have both a responsibility and duty, as set out in our children and young people safeguarding policy and procedures, to act in order that the appropriate agencies can investigate and take any necessary action to protect a child or young person.

Everyone who works with children or young people or comes into contact with children or young people through their work, should be able to recognise, and know how to act upon, indicators that a child's or young person's welfare or safety may be at risk.

Abuse can occur from:

- Parents;
- Others with parental responsibility;
- Adults in a position of trust;
- People within the wider family circle or neighbourhood;
- Complete strangers;
- Other children.

Abuse or harm occurs as much from omissions and lack of protection as from commission of actual acts of abuse. Child protection/safeguarding processes should always consider the wider needs of the child and family; broad-based family support services should always be alert to potential indicators of abuse or neglect.

Disabled Children

Disabled children are at increased risk of abuse because they can experience greater and created vulnerability. This is the result of negative societal values, attitudes, and assumptions and unequal access to services and resources. They have problems seeking help because of barriers to communication such as isolation or inaccessible services. If staff or volunteers support people with disabilities have limited knowledge and skills with regard to a disability, this can increase the barriers to the recognition of abuse. The nature of a disability will be unique to each individual child/young person. They are likely to have additional needs relating to physical, sensory, cognitive, and/or communication impairments.

Reasons why disabled children and young people are more vulnerable:

- More risk of social isolation
- Increased dependency for practical assistance which may increase risk of exposure to abusive behaviour
- Impaired capacity to resist/avoid abuse
- Speech and language communication needs can affect ability to report abuse
- Lack of access to someone they trust
- Vulnerable to bullying and intimidation
- Looked after Children who are disabled are vulnerable due to being in care but also vulnerable due to the additional dependency of their disability.

4.1 Types of Abuse

Harm can be suffered by a child or young person by acts of abuse perpetrated upon them by others. Abuse can happen in any family, but children may be more at risk if their parents have problems with drugs or alcohol, or mental health issues, or if they live in a home where domestic abuse happens. Abuse can also occur outside of the family environment. Evidence shows that babies and children with disabilities can be more vulnerable to suffering abuse.

Although the harm from the abuse might take a long time to be recognisable in the child or young person, professionals may be in a position to observe its indicators earlier, for example, in the way that a parent interacts with their child. The key is effective and ongoing information sharing between professionals.

Harm from abuse is not always straightforward to identify and a child or young person may experience more than one type of harm or significant harm.

Harm can be caused by	Sexual abuse	Neglect
Physical abuse	Emotional abuse	Exploitation

Type of Abuse	Indicators: Physical Signs	Indicators: Behavioural signs

Emotional Abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child. It is also sometimes called psychological abuse and it can have severe and persistent adverse effects on a child's emotional development. Emotional abuse may involve deliberately telling a child that they are worthless, or unloved and inadequate. It may include not giving an opportunity to express their views, deliberately silencing them, or 'making fun' of what they say or how they communicate. Emotional abuse may involve bullying – including online bullying through social networks, online games, or mobile phones – by a child's peers.	A failure to thrive. Sudden speech disorders. Neglect is the failure to provide for a child's basic needs, whether it be adequate food, clothing, hygiene, supervision or	Constant hunger, sometimes stealing food from others. Children who are neglected often also suffer from other types of abuse.	Loss of weight or being constantly underweight. Inappropriate dress for the conditions.	Having few friends. Mentioning their being left alone or unsupervised.
Exploitation¹ is the intentional ill-treatment, manipulation or abuse of power and control over a child or young person; to take selfish or unfair advantage of a child or young person or situation, for personal gain. It may manifest itself in many forms such as child labour, slavery, servitude, engagement in criminal activity, begging, benefit or other financial fraud, or child trafficking. It extends to the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring, or receipt of children for the purpose of exploitation. Exploitation can be sexual in nature.	Persistently going missing for periods of time or returning home late regularly Frequently staying out late or overnight with no explanation as to where they have been Using more than one phone Spending more time online or on their devices	Unhealthy or inappropriate sexual behaviour Being secretive about who they are talking to and where they are going.
CSE- Child Sexual Exploitation is a type of sexual abuse. When a child or young person is exploited, they're given things, like gifts, drugs, money, status and affection, in exchange for	Unhealthy or inappropriate sexual behaviour. Having an older boyfriend or girlfriend. Having money or things they can't or won't explain.	Being frightened of some people, places or situations. Bring secretive. Sharp changes in mood or character. Having a new group of friends.

performing sexual activities. Children and young people are often tricked into believing they're in a loving and consensual relationship. This is called grooming. They may trust their abuser and not understand that they're being abused. Children and young people can be trafficked into or within the UK to be sexually exploited. They're moved around the country and abused by being forced to take part in sexual activities, often with more than one person. Young people in gangs can also be sexually exploited. Sometimes abusers use violence and intimidation to frighten or force a child or young person, making them feel as if they've no choice. They may lend them large sums of money they know can't be repaid or use financial abuse to control them. (NSPCC)	Physical signs of abuse, like bruises or bleeding in their genital or anal area. Alcohol or drug misuse. Sexually transmitted infections. Pregnancy Staying out late or overnight.	Missing from home or care or stopping going to school or college. Hanging out with older people, other vulnerable people or in antisocial groups. Involved in a gang. Involved in criminal activities like selling drugs or shoplifting.

Although not categorized as abuse, it is important to recognise and respond appropriately to children and young people who may have self-harmed or suspected of self-harming. Self-harm is a term used when someone injures or harms himself or herself on purpose (also called self-injury or deliberate self-harm) rather than by accident. Common examples include cutting, hitting, scratching or burning. Attempted suicide is the most serious form of self-harm. Course of Action: If a young person discloses that they self-harm to an employee, agency worker or elected member or if an employee, agency worker or elected member suspects a young person could be self-harming the procedure to follow is as per safeguarding concerns.

Responding to Concerns and Allegations

- It is important that all employees, volunteers and elected members are aware that the first person that has concerns or encounters a case of alleged or suspected abuse is not responsible for deciding whether or not abuse has occurred. However, employees, volunteers and elected members do have a duty of care to children and young people to report any suspicions they may have.

Remember:

It is not your job to judge or investigate or to decide that abuse has taken place. It is your responsibility to inform the right people so that the necessary action can be taken to protect children and young people

In general, there are 3 possible situations where employees, agency workers, volunteers and elected members may need to respond to a concern or case of alleged or suspected abuse:

1. Responding to a child or young person disclosing abuse, i.e., the child or young person makes an allegation of abuse
2. Responding to allegations or concerns against an employee, agency worker, volunteer or elected member
3. Responding to allegations or concerns against any other person, i.e., parent, carer, other service user.

8.2 Specific Response Procedures / Actions

The following procedures should be followed in each situation.

Safeguarding Procedures

Stage 1

For all staff, agency workers or volunteers

You must complete a Safeguarding Incident Form and report to a Designated Safeguarding Officer if you:

- a) Suspect that a child or young person or adult has been, or is at risk of being abused; or
- b) Have had a disclosure made to you; or

You must contact a Designated Safeguarding Officer or your Line Manager if DSO is unavailable

BUT if the child, young person or adult is in need of immediate protection from harm you must contact the PSNI, Ambulance, or the H&SCT Gateway team immediately.

Write careful notes in the Safeguarding Incident Form of what you witnessed, heard, or were told.

Sign, date, & give these to a Designated Safeguarding Officer

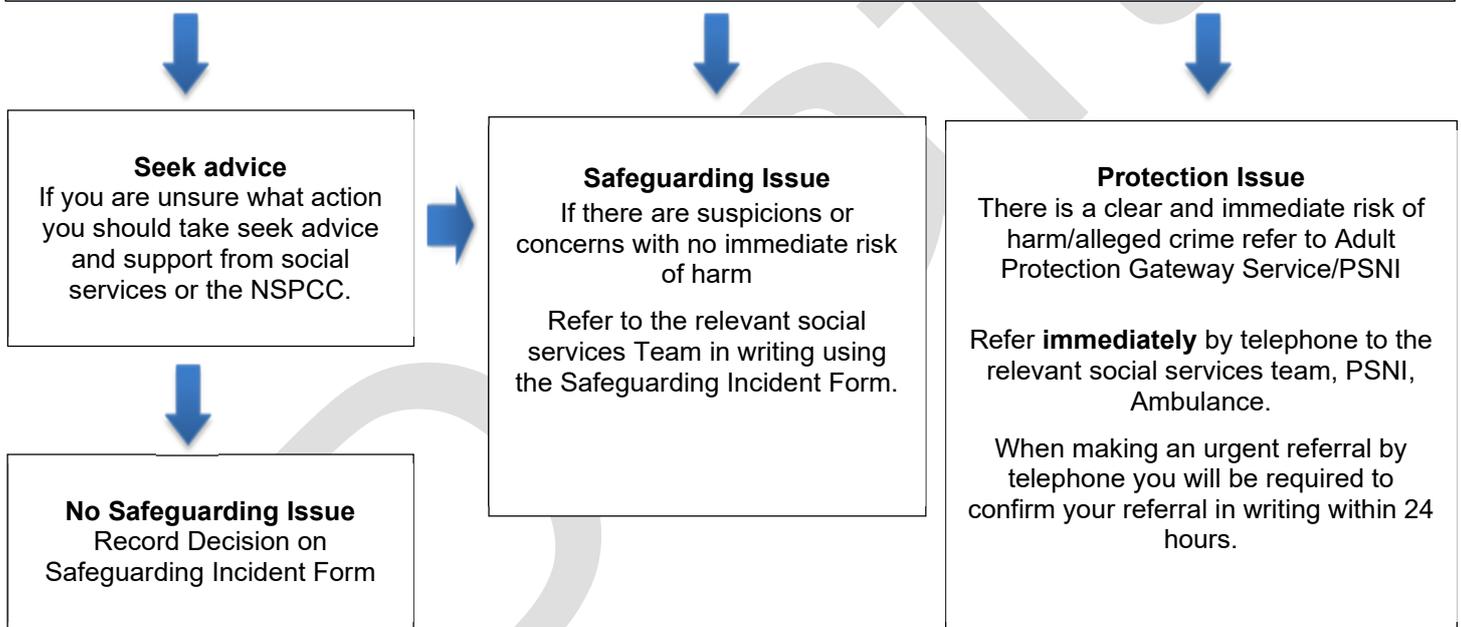

Timescale
Immediately

Stage 2 – Reviewing & Referring Safeguarding Children Concerns Designated Safeguarding Officers

On receiving the report of a concern, the Designated Safeguarding Officer must review the concern, along with any other relevant information, and decide, often in liaison with others, what actions should be taken. You should also inform Council’s Safeguarding Managers’.

The relevant Health and Social Care Trust (HSCT) teams should always be informed when there are reasonable grounds for concern that a child, young person, or adult may have been abused, or is being abused, or is at risk of abuse.

If the child or young person is in imminent danger of harm you should refer to the police or Social Services without delay

Whatever your decision, you MUST:

1. Record in writing all actions taken, the reasons for these, and by whom the actions were taken.
2. Start a Safeguarding Case File (kept as per GDPR guidelines)
3. Keep a full record of all actions and decisions (Safeguarding Managers’)
4. Ensure pastoral care is provided to staff/agency workers/volunteers as appropriate (HR Department)

You will need to provide as much detail as possible (child’s/adult’s name, address, circumstances). Make sure you have this to hand when making a referral.

Stage 3
 For Designated Safeguarding Officers' & Authorities
 Assessments and Enquiries

The relevant social services team will commence an assessment and may decide to hold a strategy meeting. This is a meeting of professionals, such as police, education, social services and any other organisations. This may include the Council's Designated Safeguarding Officer. The Designated Safeguarding Officer may attend strategy meetings and ensure that any recommendations made at that meeting are fed back to the relevant people within Council. As a result of the information shared at the strategy meeting the police and/or social services may make further enquiries or assessments of the matter and will keep other agencies updated if necessary.

Stage 4
 For Designated Safeguarding Officers' & Authorities
 Assessments and enquiries

The Designated Safeguarding Officer should keep in touch with Child Services until the assessment and enquiries are concluded

OUTCOME - NO FURTHER ACTION

If it is assessed that the concerns are unfounded Social Services may decide to take no further action. In these circumstances, the child/young person may still receive support from Social Care Services or other agencies.
 Council may wish to pursue internal procedures.

OUTCOME - FURTHER ASSESSMENTS

Whatever the outcome by Social Services the situation will be discussed at Council's Safeguarding Forum and may be recommended to Council's Senior Management Team and further risk assessments may be recommended.
 Council may wish to proceed with our internal procedures.

Outcomes of any assessments and decisions by Social Services must be recorded, along with any internal actions taken by Council.
 If any new concerns arise a new referral should be made to the Gateway team

Timescale - Ongoing

8.2.1 Responding to a child or young person making an allegation of abuse

Children and young people who have been or are experiencing abuse rarely talk about this and will only tell people they trust and with whom they feel safe. The following points are a guide to help you respond appropriately.

- Listen carefully to what is said
- Find an appropriate early opportunity to explain that it is very likely that the information will need to be shared with others – do not promise to keep secrets.
- Ask questions for clarification only, and at all times avoid asking questions that suggest a particular answer i.e., leading questions.
- Reassure the child that they have done the right thing telling you
- Tell them what you will do next and whom the information will be shared
- Record in writing on a Safeguarding Incident Form all the details that you are aware of and what was said using the child's own words, as soon as possible
- Designated Safeguarding Officer informs relevant person i.e., Social Services and / or the Police if appropriate.

8.2.2 Responding to Allegations of or concerns against a member of staff, agency worker, elected member, or any other person

- Take all allegations or concerns seriously
- Record in writing on a Safeguarding Incident Form all the details that you are aware of as soon as possible.
- Report to and inform the Council's Designated Safeguarding Officer as soon as possible
- The Designated Safeguarding Officer will inform the relevant persons, i.e., social services and / or the Police if appropriate
- The Designated Safeguarding Officer should inform the Head of OD/HR as soon as possible.
- Depending on the allegation, the individual may be asked to stand aside from duties or be temporarily suspended pending an investigation.

8.2.3 Safeguarding Concerns / Allegations about a Designated Safeguarding Officer

If the concern / allegation is about a Designated Safeguarding Officer, staff / agency workers / volunteers should refer such concerns to Council's Safeguarding Managers' and / or Head of Service (Sport & Wellbeing) who will follow the steps outlined above.

8.2.4 Concerns about failures to adhere to Safeguarding Policy and Procedures

If a Council employee / agency worker / volunteer has concerns about a colleague not fulfilling the requirements of Council's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures, these concerns should be taken to any member of Council's Designated Safeguarding Team. The Designated Safeguarding Officer should refer to Council's Safeguarding Managers'.

8.2.5 Support for External Service Providers

Should an external provider have any concerns regarding Council's staff / agency workers / volunteers, a visitor, or other contractor they should report their concerns immediately to one of Council's Designated Safeguarding Officers. There will always be a Designated Safeguarding Officer on duty in all areas, and they may be accessed via the Duty Manger.

If the concern is about a Designated Safeguarding Officer, External Service Providers should report their concerns to Council's Safeguarding Managers'

8.2.6 Dealing with Disclosures

When dealing with a disclosure you should follow the procedures for reporting safeguarding concerns but there are some extra considerations for you to take:

- Ensure the immediate safety of the person. If urgent medical / police help is required, call the emergency services.
- Stay calm and listen attentively: Avoid expressing your own views on the matter. A reaction of shock or disbelief could cause the person to 'shut down', retract or stop talking so try to stay calm.
- Express concern and acknowledge what is being said; They've told you because they want help and trust you'll be the person to believe them and help them
- Tell them it's not their fault. Abuse is never the person's fault and they need to know this.
- Tell the person that they did the right thing in telling you; Reassurance can make a big impact to the person who may have been keeping the abuse secret.

It can be very hard for children and young people to reveal abuse. Often, they fear there may be consequences. Some delay telling someone about abuse for a long time, while others never tell anyone, even if they want to. Children and young people value being believed and taken seriously. It is vital that you act on what you've been told.

- Say you take them seriously. A child or young person could keep abuse secret in fear they won't be believed or taken seriously. They've told you because they want help and trust you'll be the person to support and help them
- Don't talk to the alleged abuser. Confronting the alleged abuser about what the child's told you could make the situation a lot worse for the child
- Explain what you'll do next. If age appropriate, explain to the child or young person you'll need to report the abuse to someone who will be able to help.
- Let the person know that the information will be taken seriously and provide details about what will happen next, including the limits and boundaries of confidentiality
- Explain to them that it is your duty to share your concern with your Designated Safeguarding Officer unless to do so could increase their risk – i.e. the Designated Safeguarding Officer is the subject of the allegations. In this case contact Council's Safeguarding Managers'
- Reassure the person that they will be kept involved at every stage; explain that the Designated Safeguarding Officer will seek their consent before any referral is made to external agencies.
- If you think a crime has occurred be aware that medical and forensic evidence might be needed. Consider the need for a timely referral to the police service and make sure nothing you do will contaminate it;
- Complete a Safeguarding Incident form as soon as possible and report to your Designated Safeguarding Officer immediately.

8.3 Record keeping Confidentiality and Sharing Information

Confidentiality

Whilst it is important that a partnership approach is adopted to ensure the safety and welfare of children and young people it is of equal importance that all concerned are confident that the information they provide will only be disclosed where it is in the best interests of the child or young person to do so. Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council policy and procedures have been carefully constructed to ensure such confidentiality while protecting the interests of the child or young person.

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council has Designated Safeguarding Officers who have been specially trained in the area of safeguarding children and young people and are committed to the principle of confidentiality.

According to Co-operating to Safeguard Children and Young People in Northern Ireland 2017, record keeping and information management is a key part of effective inter-agency, inter-disciplinary working in relation to safeguarding and child protection. Failure to record information, understand its significance, share it in an appropriate, purposeful and timely manner and then take appropriate action can hamper the work of those tasked with keeping children safe. Information obtained by organisations in the exercise of their safeguarding and child protection duties may be personal information about a particular child, young person or adult, and therefore is governed by the common law duty of confidentiality, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018 (the DPA).

The six principles state that

Personal data should be:

- Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary
- Accurate and where necessary kept up to date
- Kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer that is necessary for the purposes for which those data are processed, and
- Processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data

Accountability is central to GDPR. Data Controllers are responsible for compliance with the principles and must be able to demonstrate this to data subjects and the regulator.

8.3.1 How to Record a Disclosure

If someone discloses abuse to you, you must complete a Safeguarding Incident Form (see Appendix 3) and give it to your Designated Safeguarding Officer. If you have a literacy or language difficulty, the Designated Safeguarding Officer may assist you to complete the form, but this must be acknowledged on the Safeguarding Incident form.

The Safeguarding Incident Form will be retained securely and confidentially by Council's Safeguarding Managers. All Safeguarding Incident Forms and related documents will be stored in a secure locked cabinet which can only be accessed by Council's Safeguarding Managers. All electronic files will be password protected and stored on a separate section of the general drive. A log of these documents will be kept by the Safeguarding Managers to include details of when documents are accessed, and corresponding actions taken.

The Safeguarding Managers have responsibility for keeping safeguarding records securely and for sharing information in an appropriate, purposeful, and timely manner with Health & Social Care Trust Gateway Teams and / or the PSNI.

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is the Data Controller under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) for the personal data it gathers for the purposes of processing grant applications.

The personal data is held and stored by the Council in a safe and secure manner and in compliance with General Data Protection Register legislation and in line with the Council's Records Retention and Disposal Schedule.

When recording the disclosure, you must:

- Make a note, as soon as practical, of what was said, using their own words.
- Describe the circumstances in which the disclosure came about. Take care to distinguish between fact, observation, allegation, and opinion. It is important that the information you have is accurate; and,
- be mindful of the need to be confidential at all times, this information must only be shared with your Designated Safeguarding Officer and others only on a need-to-know basis.

If the child or young person involved is part of an organised group, Council's Designated Safeguarding Officer will inform the group's leader and will make every effort to agree an appropriate course of action.

Every effort should be made to ensure that confidentiality is maintained for all concerned. Information should be handled and disseminated on a need-to-know basis only, i.e., Safeguarding Managers, Designated Safeguarding Officers, Line Managers, Social Services, Police, child, parents / carers, and employees.

It is extremely important that allegations or concerns are not discussed (unless on a need-to-know basis), as any breach of confidentiality could be damaging to the child, their family and any child or young person protection investigations that may follow.

You may have concerns when informing the parents of a child or young person and this should be dealt with in a sensitive way and in consultation with Social Services. It is important that the process is done in an open and transparent manner.

If enquiries arise from the public (including parents/carers) or any branch of the media, it is vital that all employees, agency workers, volunteers and elected members are briefed by the Organisation Development & Human Resources department (OD&HR) so that they do not make any comments regarding the situation. Employees, agency workers, volunteers and elected members should reply 'no comment' to all questions / enquiries.

A Complaints Procedure is available for children and young people, parents, carers, employees, agency workers, volunteers and elected members at all Council locations and on Council's Website www.causewaycoastandglens.gov.uk Verbal, written or other accessible format complaints can be made to the Chief Executive and then Council's complaints procedure will be activated. A grievance procedure is also available for employees from the Human Resources Department or Council's intranet.

9.0 SAFER RECRUITMENT – Recruitment and Selection Guidance

Council operates transparent and clearly defined recruitment and selection procedures in accordance with legislative requirements and best practice as set out in the Local Government Staff Commission, Code of Procedures for Recruitment and Selection.

As part of Council's commitment to safeguarding children and vulnerable adults we undertake 'Safer Recruitment' when recruiting to all posts for children and vulnerable adults which require an enhanced Access NI check. An enhanced check for a post which includes 'regulated activity' will include a check with the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), which keeps lists of people who are unsuitable for work with children and vulnerable adults.

The role of Access NI

Access NI is a criminal history disclosure service in Northern Ireland. It supplies criminal history information to organisations and individuals on three levels of criminal record check (sometimes called disclosures) the level of checks will be determined at recruitment and the related processes will be managed by the Council's Human Resources Department.

An Access NI Enhanced Disclosure with Barred List Check is required for employees and volunteers in posts designated as regulated activity i.e., those posts which work with children and young people (as defined under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (NI) Order 2007, as amended by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012).

Therefore, before advertising a post or volunteering role within Council or contacting Council's recruitment and selection agency the Council will determine if the post falls into the category of regulated activity.

What is Regulated Activity with Children?

This is a position which requires working frequently (once a week or more) or intensively (any period of four days in a row or overnight) unsupervised with children. For example, a regulated activity involves:

- Teaching, training, instructing, caring for or supervising children
- Providing advice/guidance on well-being to children
- Driving a vehicle only for children
- Working in a school, children's home or childcare premises with the opportunity for contact with children
- Providing personal care, for example washing, dressing or health care to children
- Register childminders and foster-carers are also considered regulated activity

Safer Practice in Recruitment

Safer practice in recruitment means that every stage of the selection process will be considered carefully, to deter unsuitable candidates from applying or being appointed into the organisation. It also requires a consistent and thorough process of obtaining, collating, analyzing, and evaluating information from and about applicants.

In accordance with the Code of Procedures for Recruitment and Selection the Councils recruitment and selection procedures for staff and volunteers include the following:

- Defining the post through clear job/role descriptions and person specifications. These identify the qualifications, experience competencies, and knowledge required to fill the post.
- The authorization to recruit form will indicate whether the post constitutes regulated activity under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (NI) Order 2007 (as amended by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012), or if the post meets the definition of regulated activity.
- An open recruitment process
- Completion of an application/registration form, which will cover past work/volunteering experience
- Applicants invited to interview will complete a Declaration of Criminal Convictions and consent form. Applicants must give consent for the relevant Access NI Disclosure Check to be carried out.
- Interview (or meeting in the case of a volunteer) appropriate to the job/role with at least two representatives of Council. Photographic identification and, where required, documentary evidence of qualifications and any accredited training should be produced by the preferred candidate when offered the post.

Following a conditional offer of employment, the following procedures apply:

- Request for two written references, one of which should be the applicants' current or most recent employer.
- Appropriate checks will be undertaken where required. An Access NI Enhanced Disclosure with Barred List Check will be requested for the preferred candidate if the job/role is considered regulated activity. If required, a registration check with an appropriate professional body will also be required.

Council will ensure that all information relating to recruitment and selection is securely and confidentially stored. Handling and storage of criminal history information complies fully with Access NI's Code of Practice for the storage, retention, and disposal of disclosure information. Copies of the Self Disclosure and Rehabilitation of Offenders Policy, and the Regulated Activity and Excepted Posts Criminal Records Check Policy are available on request.

Referrals

'The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) is responsible for maintaining the list of individuals barred from engaging in Regulated Activity with children and adults at risk across England, Wales and Northern Ireland. A regulated activity provider must refer anyone to the DBS who has harmed or poses a risk of harm to a child or an adult and who has been removed from working (paid or unpaid) in regulated activity or would have been removed had they not left. The DBS will decide whether the person should be barred from working in regulated activity with children, or adults, or both. It is an offence to knowingly engage a barred person in regulated activity and it is an offence to engage or offer to engage in regulated activity if you are barred.'

Effective Management, Support and Supervision of Staff and Volunteers

Effective management of staff and volunteers ensures that everyone in the Council is clear about what they are trying to achieve and what their job/role is. The Council wants to prevent harm to the children and adults at risk of harm and we support the provision of appropriate training and support, and supervision of staff and volunteers helps to achieve this. We also want staff and volunteers to feel valued and listened to.

The Council's management procedures for staff and volunteers include the following:

Local and Corporate Induction which covers:

- The Council's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures
- The job / role and the staff member / volunteer's area of responsibility
- What is expected of staff and volunteers.
- Support available to staff and volunteers
- Written acknowledgement of completion. The staff member / volunteer and their manager / coordinator sign off the induction.

Probationary period for staff and trial period for volunteers

All appointments are conditional on a satisfactory period of employment or volunteering, the timeframe for which will be agreed. The probation review form includes reference to Safeguarding.

Learning and Development

Council recognizes the importance of excellent learning and development practice. It is management's responsibility to identify both the individual and common training needs for our staff and volunteers. In addition to induction, all staff and volunteers in Council will receive training on an ongoing basis and this will be appropriate to their need and their job/role. In relation to safeguarding, all staff and Elected members shall receive awareness training in Safeguarding Children and Adults at Risk of Harm. This training will include familiarization with the Council's policy and procedures.

Corporate Safeguarding training will include:

- Awareness of Safeguarding issues and the legal context
- Code of Behaviour
- Reporting Procedures and Forms
- Assessing and Managing Risks
- Managing Information and storing data
- Receiving Comments and Complaints
- Awareness of all relevant procedures and guidance.

Training will include employees, volunteers, agency workers & elected members. Training will be provided at 3 levels. (See table in 6.0)

Where appropriate Council will work in partnership with other bodies such to deliver training.

Learning and Development Management

Council will keep records of all training completed by staff and volunteers. Additional training needs identified will be discussed with their line manager/coordinator. Support and supervision is provided to staff and volunteers through regular feedback and team meetings.

Work Placement

When a work placement has been agreed the following paperwork is to be followed / completed:

- Work Experience Placement Procedure
- Work Experience Placement Request Form (WEP1)
- Work Experience Placement – Health Declaration (Under18) (WEP2)
- Work Experience Placement Confirmation Form (WEP4)

At the start of the Work Placement the manager will complete

- Induction Checklist (WEP5)
- Young Person Risk Assessment (OHS 021)

As part of the Health Declaration (WEP2) form, the person with 'parental responsibility' must agree to a number of factors including 'I agree to my son/daughter being transported by a member of staff in a Council vehicle or staff member's car'. This was a matter of discussion at our meeting and we agreed that 'Where possible, staff must not travel alone in a vehicle with a student'. Our first objective is to avoid this situation, i.e., where a member of staff is transporting a student on work placement however we appreciate that this is not always the case i.e., work experience within planning, coaching, building control, environmental health etc.

Please refer to Appendix 4 for further Guidance

10.0 PHOTOGRAPHY AND VIDEO GUIDANCE

The purpose of this guidance is to protect the interests of Council and the privacy and protection of visitors, especially in relation to safeguarding children and Human Rights Legislation. It is not feasible to always ban cameras or camera phones so we have to consider how to reduce the risk to children and young people.

Children and young people may be identified, contacted or groomed

Including the child's personal information (full name, address) alongside their image can make them identifiable and therefore vulnerable to individuals looking to locate, contact or 'groom' children or young people for abuse.

Even if personal details are kept confidential, other details identifying the organisation, school or club, or e.g., their favourite sportsperson or team, can also be used to groom the child or young person.

There's increased risk of identification of, and contact with, a child or young person:

- by someone in circumstances where there are legal restrictions – such as if the child is in local-authority care or placed with an adoptive family
- where it's potentially dangerous to reveal the child's whereabouts to an estranged parent due to previous concerns about domestic violence

Someone might make inappropriate or illegal images of children

Photo or video content may itself be inappropriate, or images may be used inappropriately or out of context. Some individuals may deliberately target Council activities and set out to take inappropriate photos in ways that are potentially illegal and harmful, such as:

- images of children changing (e.g., For drama activities)
- photos taken in the toilets
- using a camera at ground level to photograph up girls' skirts
- images that appear ambiguous can be used inappropriately and out of context by others (for example, images from some angles of children playing etc.)
- images can easily be copied and edited, perhaps to create child-abuse images
- images shared privately online can be re-shared, possibly entering the public domain on websites or social media

In relation to all of the above it is important that Council ensure that if a member of staff / agency worker or volunteer suspects that someone is taking inappropriate images, they should report this immediately to the Designated Safeguarding Officer.

Staff / Agency Workers / Volunteers

Staff / Agency Workers / Volunteers should not take photographs or films of children & young people attending Council activities with their own personal mobiles. If photographs of children & young people are needed for promotional reasons consent should be sought from a parent / guardian and photographs should be taken using appropriate equipment.

General Visitors

General visitors may try to take photographs with normal domestic cameras of their friends and family in Council.

Staff / agency workers / volunteers must however be aware of abuse of this whereby adults may be taking photographs of children or young people who are not part of their family. This behaviour is not in keeping with our safeguarding children and young people policy and procedures and should be politely but firmly stopped.

Press Photographs

Professional photographers who are taking publicity shots on behalf of Council must seek written consent from the people they are photographing.

If the person is Under 18 then the adult accompanying them must give permission this can be either a parent or teacher.

It is the duty of the activity leader to ensure that this permission is obtained BEFORE the photograph is taken.

The photographic permission must state the purpose of the photography and how the photograph is being used. The permission form should be retained and filed for future reference.

CCTV

Notices indicating that Council uses CCTV should be in public view on all floors. In addition, the reason for using CCTV should be mentioned in the publicly displayed notice of the policy. CCTV should only be used for security reason such as the protection of visitors and the building.

11.0 MANAGING RISK AND SUPERVISION

Council comes into contact with children and young people across a very diverse range of activities and contexts ranging across leisure and sports development, theatre, arts development, play area maintenance etc. It is unrealistic to determine a prescriptive adult to child ratio for each differing activity and therefore a risk assessment must be carried out to determine the appropriate adult to child ratios in respect of the nature of the activity and the likely risks, safeguarding issues and health and safety requirements.

Levels of supervision must be adequate whether at Council's facilities or on an external journey / visit. Therefore, when deciding how many adults are required to supervise, assessors must consider any practical considerations that may be relevant and the number of participants in the group. The risk assessment may well indicate the need for an enhanced level of supervision and employees for a particular activity.

In completing the assessment, Council's Code of Behaviour must be adhered to (See Appendix 1)

12.0 GRANT AID RECIPIENTS

Recipients of grant aid from Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council, particularly organisations with access to children & young people and adults at risk, must demonstrate to Council that they have fully taken on board safeguarding issues. They may do this by either producing a copy of their own Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy or in the absence of a policy the recipients must adopt Council's Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy & Procedures.

Council would also encourage these groups to ensure that they have carried out adequate checks on those who will access to children and young people. This may include Access NI checks completed on all staff, coaches, and volunteers where appropriate. You do not need to include a copy of your safeguarding policies, employment policy, insurance, licence, permissions, or confirmation of Access NI checks, but they may be requested at any time and may be required if your application for funding is successful.

13.0 ANONYMOUS COMPLAINTS ABOUT SAFEGUARDING ISSUES

Anonymous complaints re: safeguarding issues can be difficult to deal with but should not be ignored. They should be taken seriously and brought to the attention of the Designated Safeguarding Officers' who will treat them in accordance with this policy. The information will be checked out and handled in a confidential and appropriate manner.

14.0 COMMUNICATION

Council will promote awareness of safeguarding children and young people issues through a variety of media where possible. This may include training and information sessions, supervision, leaflets, webpage, posters, signage, etc. For guidance on texting and emailing, please refer to Appendix 9.

15.0 IMPLEMENTATION PLAN & REVIEW

The following plan outlines the mechanisms that Council will use to ensure that these policy and procedures are implemented in an effective, efficient and professional manner.

An annual report will be prepared for the Senior Management Team and Council by the Head of Service for Sport & Wellbeing & Sport & Wellbeing Development Unit Manager via Council's Safeguarding Forum as to the implementation of these policy and procedures.

These Managers' will ensure:

- That the policy and procedures will be reviewed every three years in conjunction with the Designated Safeguarding Officers' to take account of developments in the area of child protection.
- Recommendations for changes to the policy and procedures in keeping with current best practice
- Compliance of the policy and procedures throughout Council
- That safeguarding training is delivered across Council to employees, agency workers, volunteers and elected members at the appropriate level as outlined in Section 6: Training of Employees / Agency Workers / Volunteers and Elected Members

16.0 SECTION 75 EQUALITY AND GOOD RELATIONS

All children and young people should be valued and treated in an equitable and fair manner regardless of ability or disability, gender, age, religion, social, cultural & ethnic background or political persuasion, and sexual orientation.

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is also fully committed to meeting its obligations in relation to Equality and Good Relations under Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act. In this regard this policy will be screened using Section 75 guidelines and will be subject to an Equality Impact Assessment if found necessary as a result of the screening process.

Disclaimer note: These safeguarding policy and procedure materials were drawn up specifically for Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council with the assistance and advice of the NSPCC and conform to current child protection legislation and guidance. The NSPCC cannot accept any responsibility for the implementation and application of the procedures by Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.

17.0 CONTACTS

Any issues or queries relating to these policy and procedures please see Appendix 10 for contact details.

NB: In the event of the Designated Safeguarding Officers' not being available or the issue has taken place outside the hours of 9am to 5pm, the employee / agency worker or volunteer should:

- Refer any concerns they have to their immediate line manager
- Complete the Appendix 3 Safeguarding Incident Form
- Ensure the Safeguarding Incident Form and details are given to the Designated Safeguarding Officer as soon as possible

Should the line manager believe that there could be risk to a child or young person they should contact the Regional Emergency Social Work Service (RESWS) for further advice. Telephone (028) 9504 9999 or contact the PSNI dialing 999

APPENDIX 1

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

Considering varied activities across business units within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council, it is recognised that it is not practical to provide definitive instructions that would apply to all situations at all times to guarantee the protection of children and young people and also the protection of staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors or external service providers.

However, stated below are the standards of behaviour required of staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors and external service providers in order to fulfil their roles within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council. This should assist in the safeguarding of children and young people and provide protection for staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors or external service providers.

Staff / Agency Workers / Volunteers / Regular contractors MUST:

- Always implement the Safeguarding Policy and Procedures
- Create a climate conducive to a positive experience, engaging with children and young people, building up self-esteem, knowledge and skill
- Use positive and affirming language in communicating and show respect and inclusiveness
- Maintain the well-being, physical and emotional safety of children and young people during their visit
- Be mindful of their language and behaviour while at work with regards to gender, sexuality, race, religion, class, or political background.

Staff / Agency Workers / Volunteers / Regular contractors MUST NEVER:

- Engage in rough, physical games, including horseplay, with members of the public at Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.
- Allow or engage in inappropriate physical contact of any kind
- Make sexually suggestive comments to members of the general public at Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council

It is strongly recommended that staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors DO NOT as part of their role, except in emergency situations:

- Go into the toilet with children or young people, unless in exceptional circumstances to meet the needs of the person and where possible another adult should be present. Staff / Agency Workers / Volunteers are expected to use the designated staff toilets and should not use public toilets during public opening hours. In an emergency, a staff member may use the public toilets if unoccupied by unsupervised children and young people.
- Spend time alone with a child or young person. Staff / Agency Workers / Volunteers should make sure to remain in public areas with the child or return to public areas as soon as possible.

Staff / Agency Workers / Volunteers / Regular contractors must learn to recognise vulnerable safeguarding situations. There may be times when it is impossible to avoid such situations, however, the decision by staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors to place themselves in such a situation should be influenced by what is in the best interests of the child's or young person's welfare.

Physical Contact with Council Visitors who are Children & Young People

As part of their role, staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors should not have gratuitous or unnecessary physical contact with members of the general public who are visiting Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.

However, there will be times when it is necessary and appropriate for staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors to have some physical contact with the general public. This may be to:

- develop specific skills or techniques within an activity.
- treat an injury.
- meet the requirements of the activity.
- comfort a distressed child or young person or to celebrate their success.
- Intervene in an emergency

The main principles of appropriate physical contact are:

- Physical contact should always be with the child's or young person's permission – resistance from should be respected (depending on the age and developmental stage of the child, the level of risk to the child, or others).
- Physical contact should always be in response to the person's needs i.e. physical safety, emotional well-being and educational guidance
- Do not do things of a personal nature for children or young people that they can do for themselves or that their parent/leader/carer can do for them.
- Physical contact should always be appropriate to the age and stage of development of the child or young person.
- Children or young people should be encouraged to voice concerns they have if any physical contact makes them feel uncomfortable or threatened.
- You should explain the nature of and reason for the physical contact to the person.
- Physical contact should always take place in an open or public environment and not take place in secret or out of sight of others.
- Physical contact with breasts, buttocks, or groin area should be avoided. If such parts of the anatomy require physical contact due to intimate care or assistance in physical activities, others should be made aware.

If staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors feel uncomfortable about the way a child or young person has instigated physical contact, this should be discussed with the Designated Safeguarding Officer and recorded on a Safeguarding Incident Form.

Children or Young people who need specific assistance due to disability or injury

In the case of a child or young people with a disability specific support or assistance may be required:

- Parents/carers, essential aids, or delegate care providers should be asked to undertake all intimate or personal care tasks for the visitor. This is not an appropriate role for staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors.
- When children or young people with disabilities are lifted or manually supported, they should be treated with dignity and respect.
- Relevant health and safety guidelines must be followed to ensure the safety of the child or young person.

Physical intervention with a child or young person

On rare occasions, it may be necessary to physically intervene with a child or young people without their permission to:

- Prevent physical injury of the individual or other visitors or staff / agency workers / volunteers or yourself
- Prevent an injury or accident from occurring
- Prevent damage to any property
- Prevent or stop the commission of a criminal offence.

In all circumstances such physical intervention must be appropriate and reasonable otherwise your action can be defined as assault.

Lost or Found Children or young people

Staff / agency workers / volunteers should follow their specific business unit procedures in cases of lost or found children or adults at risk. External Service Providers should refer such cases to staff / agency workers / volunteers immediately.

Implications for staff / agency workers / volunteers

Staff / agency workers / volunteers who breach the code of behaviour will be subject to the disciplinary procedure.

If an allegation against a staff member, agency worker or a volunteer has occurred, an investigation will be carried out in line with Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council's disciplinary procedure. The investigating officer will be required to liaise with the Designated Officer to clarify if she/he/they has/have any relevant records of any safeguarding information in relation to the individual. Where an overlap in the roles could jeopardise an investigation and or the principles of natural justice, the business unit manager will make a temporary appointment as is required.

If the investigation finds that the member of staff has acted inappropriately or not acted in the best interests of the child or young person, the disciplinary procedure will be invoked including contacting the DBS as appropriate.

If the investigation finds that the member of staff has acted inappropriately or not acted in the best interests of the adult, the disciplinary procedure will be invoked.

Implications for External Service Providers

A breach of the Safeguarding Code of Behaviour may, if after investigation inappropriate behaviour is believed to have occurred, lead to the External Service Provider's contract being terminated.

Furthermore, Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council will inform DBS where a contract has been terminated due to posing a risk to children or will inform the ISA where a contract has been terminated due to posing a risk to adults at risk.

If an allegation against an external service provider has occurred, the incident will be referred to the External Service Provider's management and an investigation will be carried out in line with Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures.

Safeguarding Managers' and / or Head of Service (Sport & Wellbeing) from Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council will liaise with the External Service Provider's Manager to clarify any information. The matter will be referred to social service Gateway team and/or the PSNI as relevant.

GUIDANCE ON WORKING WITH WORK PLACEMENT STUDENTS

Due to the fact that we offer a facility whereby students from schools and colleges are able to learn about certain business areas of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council and its facilities for short and long-term periods, some staff will be required to work on a one-to-one basis with a young person from 15 - 18 years of age.

It is recognised that schools and colleges expect those undertaking work experience placements to develop independence, responsibility, and the ability to make their own decisions and to apply learning. It is also recognised that it is not always practical to have two or more staff working with one young person during work experience placements for a variety of reasons. However, it is also appreciated that in the light of the entire content of this policy, the welfare of the child or young person must be paramount.

Therefore, to enable both staff/volunteers and work experience students to have a positive experience, the actions below must be followed:

1. Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council will provide all work experience students with an Induction Checklist (WEP 5) on the first day of their placement. The Line Manager will review the Induction Checklist with the student, this includes details the work experience student should be aware of including Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council expectations of him/her, aspects of relevant policies and procedures, and general operational information. The line manager will supplement this with information specific to their operational area.
2. The line manager will also complete a Young Person's Risk Assessment (OHS 021).
3. If it identified that the student has literacy or learning difficulties, alternative methods will be applied to ensure that the student receives the full induction information e.g., verbal explanation etc.
4. A work programme will be developed detailing:
 - A nominated mentor
 - Proposed activities for the duration of the student's placement
 - Who will have overall supervisory responsibility for the student
 - Details of individuals who the student may be assigned to work with at different times during the placement.
5. If staff are expected to spend time alone with a student, the staff member must:
 - always ensure that the student's supervisor or another staff member knows your location and the proposed activity;

- ensure that a door is left ajar or that there is a clear view into the room/exhibit through a window;
6. Where possible, staff must not travel alone in a vehicle with the student. In these circumstances Parental responsibility will be sought.
 7. All staff that will come into contact with the student during the work experience placement must adhere to all aspects of this policy. All staff/volunteers are considered to have a supervisory role with regards to Work Experience students, even if they are not working directly with the young person. It is illegal for an adult to have a sexual relationship with a person under the age of 18 if the adult works with the young person in a supervisory capacity, even if the relationship is consensual. This is considered an “abuse of trust” and is therefore a criminal offence. Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council discipline procedures will be applied plus the involvement of the relevant external agencies.

If an adult staff member or volunteer feels they are the recipient of sexual advances from a work experience student, the staff member/volunteer should immediately report this to the Designated Safeguarding Officer and complete a Safeguarding Incident Form.

SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDANCE

Introduction

This guidance has been developed to support staff throughout Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council. Further guidance can be obtained from your Line Manager, Human Resources or the designated individual within your business area tasked with managing social media.

All of us are very passionate about what we do on a daily basis. We believe in open communication, and you are encouraged to tell the world about your work and share your passion. Whether you do so by participating in a blog, wiki, online social network or any other form of online publishing or discussion is completely up to you, so long as, you do so with regard to the guidance contained therein.

These new ways of communicating are changing the way we talk to each other and even how we talk to our customers, visitors, supporters, target audiences and stakeholders.

To avoid any problems or misunderstandings this guidance aims to:

- Set out clear standards on the use of social media by all staff, agency workers and volunteers.
- Ensure expectations, with regard to the use of social media, are clearly set out;
- And the consequence for misuse.

Definition

For the purposes of this guidance, Social Media means any online publication and commentary including but not limited to; internet postings; blogs; wikis; Facebook; LinkedIn; Twitter; Flickr; TikTok, YouTube and Instagram. It covers all forms of social media including those yet to come into being.

Application of this Guidance.

This guidance applies to the use of social media for work / business and personal use; regardless of whether access is during working time and regardless of whether postings are made using the organisation's equipment or facilities, or if equipment belonging to members of staff.

Breach of this guidance may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal. Disciplinary action may be taken regardless of whether the breach is committed during working hours, and regardless of who owns the equipment or facilities used in committing the breach.

Official Use of Social Media

Throughout Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council, specific posts have been assigned responsibility for managing social media interactions for business purposes, keeping customers / supporters up to date and promoting various aspects of the business. They are responsible for directly commenting on behalf of a business division within the group. Those responsible for making comment must ensure all comments are in keeping with the core values of the group and individual business units. Only those staff who have been authorised to communicate on behalf of a business division can make such representation.

Inappropriate use of social media such as cyber bullying or sexting must be reported immediately to the Designated Safeguarding Officer. In the event that a Designated Safeguarding Officer is targeted by such an incident they must notify Council's Safeguarding Managers' immediately.

Personal use of Social Media

Whilst the business recognises that employees and workers have a right to a personal life outside of work, staff, agency workers and volunteers must also be mindful of the consequences of making comments on social media sites which could be deemed as inappropriate behaviour. This can range from; opinions / images which could be misconstrued; information of a confidential nature; complaints or information of a politically sensitive nature; essentially information which could reflect negatively on our corporate reputation. You are personally responsible for the content you publish on blogs, wikis or any other form of user-generated media. Please remember that the internet never forgets. This means that everything you publish will be visible to the world for a very, very long time.

Common sense is a huge factor here. If you are about to publish something that makes you even the slightest bit uncomfortable, review. If you are still unsure, and it is related to the business, talk to your manager, Marketing Manager, HR or a member of your Senior Management Team.

Any unauthorised staff member, agency worker or volunteer, who makes a comment expressing a view on behalf of the business will face disciplinary action. Staff, agency workers or volunteers making a comment on a social media site should always make it clear that they are speaking on their own behalf and they should apply the principles as set out below. Only a few people are official spokespeople, so if you are not one of them you must make it clear that you are speaking for yourself and not for the business. You can use a disclaimer like 'the postings on this site are my own and do not necessarily represent the position, strategy or opinions of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council. Please always write in the first person and don't use your company email address for private communications; and please consider that even anonymous postings on Wikipedia can be traced back to the company.

Examples of inappropriate behaviour can include:

- Comments which could damage the reputation of any of our business divisions including criticism of a division, its staff, customers, competitors, suppliers or other stakeholders.
- The disclosure of confidential information, including comments regarding operational matters, or comments in relation to a crisis management situation.
- Posting comments about sensitive business-related topics, such as our performance. Even if you make it clear that your views on topics do not represent those of the organisation, your comments could still damage our reputation.
- Posting comments which jeopardise intellectual property, trade secrets, artist announcements and other associated confidential information which could be damaging to the business.
- Disclosing details of customers visiting Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council, in particular those of interest in the media, unless with prior approval.
- Photographs or videos of employees / agency workers / volunteers behaving inappropriately even where it is not overtly obvious that the images relate to the business. Furthermore, we would ask staff to be mindful of colleagues' right to privacy and should seek expressed permission when posting images or information about others.
- Staff should not photograph / video members of the public who are using Council's services and post on social media without their knowledge or permission
- Expressing opinions regarding or showing images of illegal behaviour
- Falsely registering on another person's site
- Posting threatening, bullying or harassing comments
- Derogatory, disparaging, defamatory, discriminatory, offensive or illegal comments.
- Adding business contacts made during the course of your employment to personal social networking accounts, such as Facebook accounts or LinkedIn accounts, should only be done with the expressed permission of your manager.

It is important to be aware that once a comment or image is posted on a social media site it ceases to be private. Where we believe comments or images fall into the above categories the incident will be referred to the Disciplinary Procedure. Any person suspected of committing a breach of this policy will be required to co-operate with an investigation, which may involve handing over relevant passwords and login details. Staff, agency workers or volunteers may be required to remove internet postings which are deemed to constitute a breach of this guidance.

Compliance

The business reserves the right to monitor, intercept and review, without further notice, staff activities using its IT resources and communication systems. This includes, but is not limited to, social media postings. We also reserve the right to carry out monitor/intercept resources/systems to ensure that our rules are being complied with for legitimate business purpose and you are consenting to such monitoring by your acknowledgement of this guidance. There is a reasonable expectation that internet or social media may be accessed during authorised breaks however this must be kept reasonable levels where work is not interfered with. Do not use our IT resources and communications systems for any matter that you wish to be kept private or confidential from the organisation.

Social media should never be used in a way that breaches any of our other policies. If an internet post would breach any of our policies in another forum, it will also breach them in an online forum.

Where inappropriate social media usage is brought to our attention, we reserve the right to investigate concerns or complaints and can request that information is taken down from a site if it is causing concern. Failure to comply could result in disciplinary action.

If you have any concerns or require further guidance in relation to this guidance please contact the HR Department.

Monitoring and Review

The application and effectiveness of the approach to social media will be kept under review by the appropriate department. Those within your business unit with responsibility for social media will report on social media interaction and address areas of concern with the Unit Manager.

Who it applies to:

APPENDIX 9 Text and Email Messaging

Text messaging: benefits and risks

Many organisations are keen to utilise text messaging systems to help to improve the success of their programmes. This may be by helping to remind young people about the activity sessions that they have signed up to, and by promoting additional activities. The significant benefit of text messaging is that it is not only cheap, but it is one of the most direct forms of communication as most young people have mobile phones with them at all times.

It is therefore hoped that text messages will help to:

- attract more young people to the sessions, activities and clubs
- improve retention rates
- effectively signpost young people to other high quality, accredited activities and sports clubs at the end of particular programmes.

For children and young people, the safeguarding risks associated with texting include:

- inappropriate access to, use or sharing of personal details (e.g., names, mobile phone numbers)
- unwanted contact with children/young people by adults with poor intent; text bullying by peers
- being sent offensive or otherwise inappropriate materials
- grooming for sexual abuse
- direct contact and actual abuse

For adults involved risks include:

- misinterpretation of their communication with young people
- potential investigation (internal or by statutory agencies)
- potential disciplinary action

Due to these risks, the CPSU at NSPCC have produced these guidelines which will help to ensure that effective safeguarding measures are put in place to protect children and young people and to minimise risk.

Bulk or Bundled Text Messages

These guidelines primarily relate to the use of bulk (or bundled) texts i.e., the same text message being sent to several young people involved with a particular activity or programme. Bulk (or bundled) texting presents fewer opportunities for misuse and abuse than personal, one-to-one texting arrangements between coaches/volunteers and children which should be strongly discouraged. Although clubs and other sports organisations may develop and operate their own texting systems, there are also commercial organisations that offer bulk/bundle texting services, so practical arrangements will vary.

Guidelines for using Bulk (or Bundled) Text Messaging

1. Only staff that have been through relevant safeguarding checks (e.g., enhanced level DBS checks and references) should use and have access to the text messaging system. Ideally these staff should also have undertaken a recognised safeguarding.
2. The numbers of staff with access to the system, particularly data relating to young people, should be kept to a practical minimum, and their details recorded and maintained by the organisation's lead child protection officer. A record should be made of the mobile phone number/s which will be used to send the texts – ideally this should be a single number used consistently. Some systems involve a commercial bulk/bundle texts provider issuing the text messages, but in other cases this may be undertaken by a member of staff.
3. Consent must be obtained prior to sending the young people text messages. For young people aged 15 or under, specific consent must be obtained from their parents. Parents of younger children should be offered the option to be copied into any texts their child will be sent. Although parental consent is not required for young people aged 16 and over, written consent must be obtained from these individuals themselves. Please note that for the over 16's (who are children as defined by the Children Act 1989) it is still recommended that their parents are also informed of the intention to send their children text messages, the reason for this, and that the organisation has taken steps to ensure their child's safety in this respect.
4. The young people's mobile phone numbers should be stored in either a locked secure cabinet, or on an electronic system which is password protected, with access only available to the staff identified in point 1 above. The mobile phone numbers should not be shared with anyone else and should only be used for the purposes of the text messaging system as part of the programme/activity.
5. All text messages must be sent via a bundle to a group of young people i.e., the same standard text message being sent to every member of the group. The text messaging system should never be used to send text messages on an individual basis (i.e., to just one person), or to less than 5 people.
6. All text messages sent must make it clear to the young people receiving it which organisation has sent the message, rather than simply giving the mobile phone number that the system uses to send the message.
7. Young people should not be given the opportunity to text back to the system. It should only be used as a one-way communication channel.
8. The text messages which are sent must never contain any offensive, abusive or inappropriate language.
9. All of the text messages sent should include a sentence at the bottom which provides the young people with the opportunity to unsubscribe from receiving any further text messages.

10. All text messages sent to young people should also be sent to an external moderator – preferably someone with designated safeguarding responsibility in the organisation. Hence, it is essential that the moderator’s mobile phone number is included in every ‘communication group’ that is set up, and in every text messaging bundle that is sent out. The moderator’s role will be to ensure that the text system is being used appropriately, and to respond to any concerns arising.

11. Consideration will be given to initiating the organisation’s child protection and disciplinary procedures should any breaches of this protocol arise, including consultation with or referral to statutory agencies if indications of illegal activity (e.g. grooming for abuse) come to light.

Email – Safeguarding Guidelines

Many organisations are keen to utilise emails to engage with their service users, by helping to remind young people about the sport and/or activity sessions that they have signed up to, and to promote additional activities. The significant benefit of emails is that it is not only cheap, but it is one of the most direct forms of communication with young people.

For children and young people the safeguarding risks associated with email include:

- inappropriate access to, use or sharing of personal details (e.g. names, email addresses);
- unwanted contact with children/young people by adults with bad intent;
- being sent offensive or otherwise inappropriate material
- online bullying by peers;
- grooming for sexual abuse;
- direct contact and abuse.

For adults involved risks include:

- misinterpretation of their communication with young people
- potential investigation (internal or by statutory agencies)
- potential disciplinary action

Due to these risks, the CPSU at NSPCC have produced guidelines below, which activity deliverers should follow when using emails to communicate with young people. These guidelines will help to ensure that effective safeguarding measures are put in place to protect children and young people and to minimise risk.

These guidelines are based on the principle that the same email is sent to several young people involved with a particular activity or programme – as this presents fewer opportunities for misuse and abuse than personal, one-to-one email arrangements between coaches/volunteers and children. There are commercial organisations that offer bulk emailing facilities, although the exact practical arrangements may vary.

Email Guidelines

1. Only staff that have been through relevant safeguarding checks (e.g., enhanced DBS checks and references) should use and have access to the email messaging system. Ideally these staff should also have undertaken a recognised safeguarding training.

2. The numbers of staff with access to the data relating to young people, should be kept to a practical minimum, and their details recorded and maintained by the organisation's lead child protection officer. A record should be made of the staff member responsible for sending out the emails, and of the computer which will be used – ideally this should be a single, secure, organisational (rather than a private) computer used consistently. Some systems may involve the emails being issued by a commercial provider, but in other cases this may be undertaken by a member of staff.

3. The young people's details should be stored in either a locked secure cabinet, or on an electronic system which is password protected, with access only available to the staff identified in point 1 above. The names and email addresses should not be shared with anyone else and should only be used for the purposes of the communication need identified.

4. Consent must be obtained prior to sending the young people email messages. For young people aged 15 or under, specific consent must be obtained from their parents, for example via a registration form or similar. Parents of all children should be offered the option to be copied into any messages their child will be sent. Although parental consent is not required for young people aged 16 and over, written consent must be obtained from these individual young people themselves. Please note that for the over 16's it is still recommended that their parents are also informed of the intention to send their children emails, the reason for this, and what steps the organisation has taken to ensure their child's safety in this respect.

5. All emails must be sent to a group of young people i.e. the same standard email message being sent to every member of the group. The email messaging system should never be used to send messages on an individual basis (i.e. to just one person), or to less than 5 people.

6. All emails sent must make it clear to the young people receiving it which organisation has sent the message, rather than simply giving the issuing email address or name of an individual.

7. Young people should not be encouraged or given the opportunity to email back to the system. It should only be used as a one-way communication channel.

8. The emails must never contain any offensive, abusive or inappropriate language.

9. All of the emails should include a sentence at the bottom which provides the young people with the opportunity to unsubscribe from receiving any further messages, and signpost to how any concerns arising can be reported.

10. All emails sent to young people must also be sent to an external moderator – preferably someone with designated safeguarding responsibility in the organisation. Hence, it is essential that the moderator's email address is included in every 'communication group' that is set up, and in every message that is sent out. The moderator's role will be to ensure that the email system is being used appropriately, and to respond to any concerns arising.

11. Consideration will be given to initiating the organisation's child protection and disciplinary procedures should any breaches of this protocol arise, including consultation with or referral to statutory agencies if indications of illegal activity (e.g., grooming for abuse) come to light.

1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is dedicated to the comfort and safety of all our service users. We recognise our duty of care and want to ensure that adults at risk are protected from harm while they visit our premises. This Safeguarding Adults policy has been created separately from our Safeguarding Children and Young People Policies as the applicable legislation, procedures, guidance and definitions are significantly different. The following Safeguarding Adults Policies and Procedures outline the systems and procedures in place within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council in order to achieve this aim. Its successful achievement requires co-operation and partnership between our staff/volunteers and our many users.

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is committed to creating and maintaining a safe and positive environment and accepts our responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all adults involved in our activities in accordance with the Safeguarding Adults Operational Procedures (Sept 2016). Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council's Safeguarding Adults policy and procedures apply to all individuals over the age of 18 at risk of harm.

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is committed to the delivery of a quality service that also promotes good practice which protects adults at risk from harm. It will also ensure procedures are in place to safeguard its staff and volunteers and the service from potential allegations.

These Safeguarding Adults Policies and Procedures are applicable to anyone associated within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council who may have direct or indirect contact with adults at risk.

Please note a change in the use of term previously used within an adult safeguarding policy from "vulnerable adults" to now using the term "adults at risk." (See Section 3 for Safeguarding Definitions)

All staff / agency workers / volunteers have a responsibility to ensure that Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is a safe environment for all visitors who attend. Therefore, all staff/volunteers/regular contractors should be vigilant and alert to possible safeguarding incidents at all times when the public are using the building. All incidents must be reported in accordance with the procedures laid out in this document.

Principles of Safeguarding Adults at Risk

The guidance given in the policy and procedures is based on the following principles:

- A Rights-Based Approach: To promote and respect an adult's right to be safe and secure; to freedom from harm and coercion; to equality of treatment; to the protection of the law; to privacy; to confidentiality; and freedom from discrimination.

- An Empowering Approach: To empower adults to make informed choices about their lives, to maximise their opportunities to participate in wider society, to keep themselves safe and free from harm and enabled to manage their own decisions in respect of exposure to risk.
- Person-Centred Approach: To promote and facilitate full participation of adults in all decisions affecting their lives taking full account of their views, wishes and feelings and, where appropriate, the views of others who have an interest in his or her safety and well-being.
- A Consent-Driven Approach: To make a presumption that the adult has the ability to give or withhold consent; to make informed choices; to help inform choice through the provision of information, and the identification of options and alternatives; to have particular regard to the needs of individuals who require support with communication, advocacy or who lack the capacity to consent; and intervening in the life of an adult against his or her wishes only in particular circumstances, for very specific purposes and always in accordance with the law.
- A Collaborative Approach: To acknowledge that Safeguarding Adults will be most effective when it has the full support of the wider public and of safeguarding partners across the statutory, voluntary, community, independent and faith sectors working together and is delivered in a way where roles, responsibilities and lines of accountability are clearly defined and understood. Working in partnership and a person-centred approach will work hand-in-hand.

All adults, regardless of age, ability or disability, gender, race, religion, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, marital or gender status have the right to be protected from abuse and poor practice and to participate in an enjoyable and safe environment.

We will seek to ensure that Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is inclusive and make reasonable adjustments for any ability, disability or impairment, we will also commit to continuous development, monitoring, and review. The rights, dignity and worth of all adults will always be respected.

We recognise that ability and disability can change over time, such that some adults may be additionally vulnerable to abuse, for example those who have a dependency on others or have different communication needs.

We recognise that an adult with an impairment or a disability may or may not identify themselves/be identified as an adult 'at risk' or vulnerable.

Working in Partnership

The diversity of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council's functions and settings means there can be great variation in practice when it comes to safeguarding adults at risk. We will endeavour to work in partnership with a range of stakeholders to promote safeguarding.

Good communication is essential in promoting safeguarding, both to those we wish to protect, to everyone involved in working with adults at risk and to all those with whom we work in partnership. This safeguarding policy is just one means of promoting safeguarding.

Equality

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is committed to ensuring that equality is incorporated across all aspects of its development.

- We respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person and will treat everyone equally within the context of their activity while at Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council, regardless of age, ability, gender, race, ethnicity, religious belief, sexuality or social/economic status.
- We are committed to everyone having the right to enjoy their activity in an environment free from threat of intimidation, harassment and abuse.
- We have a responsibility to oppose discriminatory behaviour and promote equality of opportunity.
- We will deal with any incidence of discriminatory behaviour seriously, according to Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council's disciplinary procedures.

2.0 AIMS OF SAFEGUARDING ADULTS POLICY AND PROCEDURES:

We will ensure staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors are aware of the safeguarding standards within the organisation, their role within the policy, and the consequence of not following our procedures.

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council will ensure that appropriate training or awareness is given to staff / agency workers / volunteers to ensure an understanding of their role in recognising abuse and to familiarise them with our Safeguarding Adults Policies and Procedures.

We are committed to reviewing our policies, procedures, practices and training in line with changes in legislation and best practice or at a minimum every three years.

3.0 SAFEGUARDING DEFINITIONS

In recent years there has been a marked shift away from using the term 'vulnerable' to describe adults potentially at risk from harm or abuse. To assist working through and understanding this policy a number of key definitions need to be explained:

Adult is anyone aged 18 or over.

Adult at risk of harm: is a person aged 18 or over, whose exposure to harm through abuse, exploitation or neglect may be increased by their:

- a) Personal characteristics which may include, but are not limited to, age, disability, special educational needs, illness, mental or physical frailty or impairment of, or disturbance in, the functioning of the mind or brain.

AND / OR

- b) Life circumstances which may include, but are not limited to, isolation, socio-economic factors, and environmental living conditions.

Adult in need of protection: is a person aged 18 or over, whose exposure to harm through abuse, exploitation or neglect may be increased by their:

- a) Personal characteristics AND / OR
- b) Life circumstances AND
- c) Who is unable to protect their own well-being, property, assets, rights or other interests; AND
- d) Where the action or inaction of another person or persons is causing, or is likely to cause, him / her to be harmed

Abuse is a violation of an individual's human and civil rights by another person or persons. See pages 14 - 17 for further explanations on the types of abuse.

Adult Safeguarding is protecting a person's right to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect.

Adult Safeguarding Champion (ASC) this is a requirement for targeted services i.e., all organisations or groups that have volunteers or staff who are required to be vetted at any level under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (Northern Ireland) Order 2007. If an organisation or group does not have staff or volunteers who are required to be vetted, then it is not compulsory to have an ASC. However, having an ASC is identified as good practice for every group or organisation. All providers of targeted services are required to have an ASC and a Safeguarding Adults policy which demonstrates a zero tolerance of harm to adults.

Members of the public, voluntary and community groups NOT required to have an Adult Safeguarding Champion (ASC) should report all adult at risk or in need of protection safeguarding concerns directly to the Health and Social Care (HSC) Trust Adult Protection Gateway Service. They can do so by phoning the Trust's single point of contact telephone number.

Capacity refers to the ability to make a decision at a particular time, for example when under considerable stress. The starting assumption must always be that a person has the capacity to make a decision unless it can be established that they lack capacity.

Local Adult Safeguarding Partnerships (LASPs) the five LASPs are located within, and accountable to, their respective HSC Trusts. Their role is to implement the Northern Ireland Adult Safeguarding Partnership (NIASP) Strategic Plan, policy and operational procedures locally. Each LASP has responsibility to promote all aspects of safeguarding activity in its area and to promote multi-disciplinary, multi-agency and interagency cooperation, including the sharing of learning and best practice.

Northern Ireland Adult Safeguarding Partnership (NIASP) is a regional collaborative body led by the Health and Social Care Board (HSCB). It is supported in its work by all its constituent members, who have made a commitment to adult safeguarding.

6.0 GRANT AID RECIPIENTS

Recipients of grant aid from Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council, particularly organisations with access to children & young people and adults at risk, must demonstrate to Council that they have fully taken on board safeguarding issues. They may do this by either producing a copy of their own Safeguarding Adults Policy or in the absence of a policy the recipients must adopt Councils Safeguarding Adults Policy & Procedures.

Council would also encourage these groups to ensure that they have carried out adequate checks on those who will access to adults at risk. This may include Access NI checks completed on all staff, coaches, and volunteers where appropriate. You do not need to include a copy of your safeguarding policies, employment policy, insurance, licence, permissions, or confirmation of Access NI checks, but they may be requested at any time and may be required if your application for funding is successful.

7.0 SAFER RECRUITMENT – Recruitment and Selection Guidance

Council operates transparent and clearly defined recruitment and selection procedures in accordance with legislative requirements and best practice as set out in the Local Government Staff Commission, Code of Procedures for Recruitment and Selection.

As part of Councils commitment to safeguarding children and adults at risk we undertake 'Safer Recruitment' when recruiting to all posts for children and adults at risk which require an enhanced Access NI check. An enhanced check for a post which includes 'regulated activity' will include a check with the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), which keeps lists of people who are unsuitable for work with children and adults.

The role of Access NI

Access NI is a criminal history disclosure service in Northern Ireland. It supplies criminal history information to organisations and individuals on three levels of criminal record check (sometimes called disclosures) the level of checks will be determined at recruitment and the related processes will be managed by the Councils Human Resources Department.

An Access NI Enhanced Disclosure with Barred List Check is required for employees and volunteers in posts designated as regulated activity i.e., those posts which work with children and young people (as defined under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (NI) Order 2007, as amended by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012).

Therefore, before advertising a post or volunteering role within Council or contacting Councils recruitment and selection agency the Council will determine if the post falls into the category of regulated activity.

What is Regulated Activity with Adults?

Regulated activity with adults refers to treatment or care for an adult which makes them vulnerable at that time, for example; you are considered vulnerable when you are receiving dental treatment.

Work in regulated activity with adults involves:

- Providing healthcare as a GP, pharmacist, nurse, dentist, surgeon, or specialist
- Providing personal care such as dressing or washing
- Providing social work
- Help with general household matters such as handling cash, shopping or paying bills.
- Helping manage personal affairs such as legal papers
- Conveying an adult in a vehicle to receive personal care, healthcare, or social care.

Safer Practice in Recruitment

Safer practice in recruitment means that every stage of the selection process will be considered carefully, in order to deter unsuitable candidates from applying or being appointed into the organisation. It also requires a consistent and thorough process of obtaining, collating, analysing, and evaluating information from and about applicants.

In accordance with the Code of Procedures for Recruitment and Selection the Councils recruitment and selection procedures for staff and volunteers include the following:

- Defining the post through clear job/role descriptions and person specifications. These identify the qualifications, experience competencies, and knowledge required to fill the post.
- The authorization to recruit form will indicate whether the post constitutes regulated activity under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (NI) Order 2007 (as amended by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012), or if the post meets the definition of regulated activity.

- An open recruitment process
- Completion of an application/registration form, which will cover past work/volunteering experience
- Applicants invited to interview will complete a Declaration of Criminal Convictions and consent form. Applicants must give consent for the relevant Access NI Disclosure Check to be carried out.
- Interview (or meeting in the case of a volunteer) appropriate to the job/role with at least two representatives of Council. Photographic identification and, where required, documentary evidence of qualifications and any accredited training should be produced by the preferred candidate when offered the post.

Following a conditional offer of employment, the following procedures apply:

- Request for two written references, one of which should be the applicants' current or most recent employer.
- Appropriate checks will be undertaken where required. An Access NI Enhanced Disclosure with Barred List Check will be requested for the preferred candidate if the job/role is considered regulated activity. If required, a registration check with an appropriate professional body will also be carried out.

Council will ensure that all information relating to recruitment and selection is securely and confidentially stored. Handling and storage of criminal history information complies fully with Access NI's Code of Practice for the storage, retention, and disposal of disclosure information. Copies of the Self Disclosure and Rehabilitation of Offenders Policy, and the Regulated Activity and Excepted Posts Criminal Records Check Policy are available on request.

Referrals

'The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) is responsible for maintaining the list of individuals barred from engaging in Regulated Activity with children and adults at risk across England, Wales and Northern Ireland. A regulated activity provider must refer anyone to the DBS who has harmed or poses a risk of harm to a child or an adult and who has been removed from working (paid or unpaid) in regulated activity or would have been removed had they not left. The DBS will decide whether the person should be barred from working in regulated activity with children, or adults, or both. It is an offence to knowingly engage a barred person in regulated activity and it is an offence to engage or offer to engage in regulated activity if you are barred.'

Effective Management, Support and Supervision of Staff and Volunteers

Effective management of staff and volunteers ensures that everyone in the Council is clear about what they are trying to achieve and what their particular job/role is. The Council wants to prevent harm to the children and adults at risk of harm and we support the provision of appropriate training, support and supervision of staff and volunteers helps to achieve this. We also want staff and volunteers to feel valued and listened to.

The Council's management procedures for staff and volunteers include the following:

Local and Corporate Induction which covers:

- The Council's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures
- The job / role and the staff member / volunteer's area of responsibility
- What is expected of staff and volunteers.
- Support available to staff and volunteers
- Written acknowledgement of completion. The staff member / volunteer and their manager / coordinator sign off the induction.

Probationary period for staff and trial period for volunteers

All appointments are conditional on a satisfactory period of employment or volunteering, the timeframe for which will be agreed. The probation review form includes reference to Safeguarding.

Learning and Development

Council recognizes the importance of excellent learning and development practice. It is management's responsibility to identify both the individual and common training needs for our staff and volunteers. In addition to induction, all staff and volunteers in Council will receive training on an ongoing basis and this will be appropriate to their need and their job/role. In relation to safeguarding, all staff and Elected members shall receive awareness training in Safeguarding Children and Adults at Risk of Harm. This training will include familiarization with the Council's policy and procedures.

Corporate Safeguarding training will include:

- Awareness of Safeguarding issues and the legal context
- Code of Behaviour
- Reporting Procedures and Forms
- Assessing and Managing Risks
- Managing Information and storing data
- Receiving Comments and Complaints
- Awareness of all relevant procedures and guidance.

Training will include employees, volunteers, agency workers & elected members. Training will be provided at 3 levels – (see table in the Safeguarding Adults at Risk Training Schedule).

Where appropriate Council will work in partnership with other bodies to deliver training.

Learning and Development Management

Council will keep records of all training completed by staff and volunteers. Additional training needs identified will be discussed with their line manager/coordinator. Support and supervision is provided to staff and volunteers through regular feedback and team meetings.

8.0 TRAINING

Learning and development must not be seen as a one-off event, but a continuous process which requires the investment of time and resources within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Councils to create a learning environment and a competent workforce. Each organisation must take responsibility to develop both knowledge and expertise in safeguarding and protecting adults and seek to identify the most appropriate and relevant opportunities to develop the confidence, abilities and competence of staff and volunteers.

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is committed to providing all staff / agency workers / volunteers with appropriate Safeguarding awareness sessions or the relevant level of training in accordance with the Northern Ireland Adult Safeguarding Partnership Training Strategy 2013 (Revised 2016). HR will be responsible for ensuring that staff / agency workers / volunteers are made aware of and implement Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council Safeguarding Adults Policy and Procedures as appropriate to the job roles using existing organisational system and guidelines.

At each level, the training or awareness raising will identify:

- Required safeguarding knowledge and skills
- Key learning outcomes
- Target audience

Safeguarding Adults at Risk Training Schedule:

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Safeguarding Awareness	Safeguarding Adults Training	Designated Safeguarding Officer Training
All staff / agency workers / volunteers within the organisation.	All staff / agency workers / volunteers who have relevant contact with adults at risk, or with carers/parents of adults at risk and those who have regular contact with adults at risks, or adults known or suspected of posing a risk to adults at risk.	All Designated Safeguarding Officers/Managers/Adult Safeguarding Champion
This will involve familiarising staff / agency workers / volunteers with the working environment, with Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council expectations and the requirements of the job. All staff / agency workers / volunteers will be provided with a code of behaviour, which they must read. The code of behaviour will draw particular attention to Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council Safeguarding Adults Policies and Procedures.	This 3-hour, face-to-face training session will enable managers, staff, agency workers and volunteers to understand their roles and responsibilities in relation to safeguarding adults at risk within the context of the organisation's policies and procedures.	This full-day, face-to-face training session will enable DSOs to become familiar with the role and responsibilities of their role and to develop competence and confidence in carrying these out.

Completion of Level 1: Safeguarding Awareness and attendance at all subsequent relevant training is a mandatory requirement and individual training records will be maintained by HR.

9.0 RECORD KEEPING CONFIDENTIALITY AND SHARING INFORMATION

Confidentiality

Whilst it is important that a partnership approach is adopted to ensure the safety and welfare of adults at risk it is of equal importance that all concerned are confident that the information they provide will only be disclosed where it is in the best interests of the adult at risk to do so. Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council policy and procedures have been carefully constructed to ensure such confidentiality while protecting the interests of the adult at risk.

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council has Designated Safeguarding Officers who have been specially trained in the area of safeguarding and are committed to the principle of confidentiality.

Information obtained by organisations in the exercise of their safeguarding duties may be of a personal nature about a particular adult at risk, and therefore is governed by the common law duty of confidentiality, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018 (the DPA).

The six principles state that

Personal data should be:

- Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary
- Accurate and where necessary kept up to date
- Kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer that is necessary for the purposes for which those data are processed, and
- Processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data

Accountability is central to GDPR. Data Controllers are responsible for compliance with the principles and must be able to demonstrate this to data subjects and the regulator.

10.0 CATEGORIES OF ABUSE

Abuse is a single or repeated act, or lack of appropriate action, occurring within any relationship where there is an expectation of trust, which causes harm or distress to another individual or violates their human or civil rights. Abuse is the misuse of power and control that one person has over another. It can involve direct and indirect contact and can include online abuse.

Adult Safeguarding Operational Procedures 2016

Everyone who works with adults or comes into contact with adults through their work, should be able to recognise, and know how to act upon, indicators that an adult's welfare or safety may be at risk. It is essential that staff / agency workers / volunteers understand the different types of abuse that adults may suffer. Abuse is not always straightforward to identify and a person may experience more than one type of harm or significant harm.

Harm can be caused by:	Psychological / Emotional abuse	Neglect
Physical abuse	Financial Abuse	Exploitation
	Institutional Abuse	Sexual violence and abuse

Type of Abuse	Indicators
Physical abuse is the use of physical force or mistreatment of one person by another which may or may not result in actual physical injury. This may include hitting, pushing, rough handling, exposure to heat or cold, force feeding, improper administration of medication, denial of treatment, misuse or illegal use of restraint and deprivation of liberty. Female genital mutilation (FGM) is considered a form of physical AND sexual abuse.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Broken bones, bruises, marks on the body, or bite, burn or scald marks. • Frequent injuries that are unexplained or inconsistent. • Unexplained falls. • Signs of malnutrition. • Missed medical appointments or medical conditions left untreated.
Sexual violence and abuse: Sexual abuse is 'any behaviour (physical, psychological, verbal, virtual/online) perceived to be of a sexual nature which is controlling, coercive, exploitative, harmful, or unwanted that is inflicted on anyone (irrespective of age, ethnicity, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation or any form of disability). Sexual violence and abuse can take	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bleeding, pain, itching or sores around the genitals. • Pain or discomfort when walking or sitting. • Bruising, especially on the thighs, buttocks, upper arms and neck.

It may involve physical contact, including but not limited to non-consensual penetrative sexual activities or non-penetrative sexual activities, such as intentional touching (known as groping). Sexual violence can be found across all sections of society, irrelevant of gender, age, ability, religion, race, ethnicity, personal circumstances, financial background or sexual orientation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Torn, blooded or stained clothing• STIs.• Unexplained pregnancy, for example in a woman who is unable to consent to intercourse.• Sleeping difficulties, self-harm, withdrawal, poor concentration, apprehension about relationships, or reluctance to be left alone with a certain person.• Not wanting to receive help with personal care.• Explicit use of sexual language or changes in attitude and behaviour towards sexual activity.
Psychological / emotional abuse is behaviour that is psychologically harmful or inflicts mental distress by threat, humiliation or other verbal/non-verbal conduct. This may include threats, humiliation or ridicule, provoking fear of violence, shouting, yelling and swearing, blaming, controlling, intimidation and coercion.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Low self-esteem, or withdrawal or change in the emotional state of the person.• Changes in appetite, or weight loss or gain.• Insomnia.• Tearfulness and other signs of distress, including anger in some cases.• Fearfulness or silence when a particular person is around.

Institutional abuse is the mistreatment or neglect of an adult by a regime or individuals in settings which adults who may be at risk reside in or use. This can occur in any organisation, within and outside Health and Social Care (HSC) provision. Institutional abuse may occur when the routines, systems and regimes result in poor standards of care, poor practice and behaviours, inflexible regimes and rigid routines which violate the dignity and human rights of the adults and place them at risk of harm. Institutional abuse may occur within a culture that denies, restricts or curtails privacy, dignity, choice and independence. It involves the collective failure of a service provider or an organisation to provide safe and appropriate services and includes a failure to ensure that the necessary preventative and/or protective measures are in place.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rigid routines and a lack of flexibility and choice for service users. • Lack of staff training, development and support. • Poor standards of care, including people being hungry or dehydrated. • Misuse of medication. • Inadequate staffing levels, procedures and record-keeping. • Lack of individual care plans. • Few social, recreational and educational activities, and an absence of visitors. • Lack of privacy and confidentiality, including public discussion of personal matters, and exposure when somebody is using the toilet or bathing.
Neglect occurs when a person deliberately withholds, or fails to provide, appropriate and adequate care and support which is required by another adult. It may be through a lack of knowledge or awareness, or through a failure to take reasonable action given the information and facts available to them at the time. It may include physical neglect to the extent that health or well-being is impaired, administering too much or too little medication, failure to provide access to	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A dirty or unhygienic environment. • Poor personal hygiene. • Inadequate clothing. • Injuries or medical problems untreated, pressure sores or ulcers, or malnutrition or unexplained weight loss.

Exploitation is the deliberate maltreatment, manipulation or abuse of power and control over another person; to take advantage of another person or situation usually, but not always, for personal gain from using them as a commodity. It may manifest itself in many forms including slavery, servitude, forced or compulsory labour, domestic violence and abuse, sexual violence and abuse, or human trafficking.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Appears malnourished or unkempt; for example, they wear the same clothes every day. • Seems withdrawn, avoids eye contact or appears hesitant or frightened of others. • Is isolated, rarely being allowed on their own or seemingly being under the control and influence of others. • Has few, or no, personal possessions. • Lacks identification documents. • Lives in poor conditions, such as dirty, cramped, or overcrowded places. • Fears law enforcement officers. • Shows signs of physical and psychological abuse.

This list of types of harmful conduct is neither exhaustive nor listed here in any order of priority. There are other indicators which should not be ignored. It is also possible that if a person is being harmed in one way, he/ she may very well be experiencing harm in other ways.

Related Definitions

Victims of domestic violence and abuse, sexual violence and abuse, human trafficking and hate crime are regarded as adults in need of protection. There are specific strategies and mechanisms in place designed to meet the particular care and protection needs of these adults and to promote access to justice through the criminal justice system. It is essential such safeguarding concerns are referred to the appropriate services as outlined below.

Domestic violence and abuse: Domestic violence or abuse is ‘threatening, controlling, coercive behaviour, violence or abuse (psychological, virtual, physical, verbal, sexual, financial or emotional) inflicted on anyone (irrespective of age, ethnicity, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation or any form of disability) by a current or former intimate partner or family member’. Domestic violence and abuse is essentially a pattern of behaviour which is characterised by the exercise of control and the misuse of power by one person over another. It is usually frequent and persistent. It can include violence by a son, daughter, mother, father, husband, wife, life partner or any other person who has a close relationship with the victim. It occurs right across society, regardless of age, gender, race, ethnic or religious group, sexual orientation, wealth, disability or geography. The response to any adult facing this situation will usually require a referral to specialist services such as Women’s Aid or the Men’s Advisory Project. In high risk cases a referral will also be made to the Multi- Agency Risk Assessment (MARAC) process. Specialist services will then decide if the case needs to be referred to an HSC Trust for action under the safeguarding procedures. If in doubt, anyone with a concern can ring the Domestic and Sexual Violence helpline (0808 802 1414) to receive advice and guidance about how best to proceed.

Human Trafficking/Modern Slavery: Human trafficking/modern slavery involves the acquisition and movement of people by improper means, such as force, threat or deception, for the purposes of exploiting them. It can take many forms, such as domestic servitude, forced criminality, forced labour, sexual exploitation and organ harvesting. Victims of human trafficking/ modern slavery can come from all walks of life; they can be male or female, children or adults, and they may come from migrant or indigenous communities. The response to adults at risk experiencing human trafficking/modern slavery will always be to report the incident to the Police Service.

Hate crime: Hate crime is any incident which constitutes a criminal offence perceived by the victim or any other person as being motivated by prejudice, discrimination or hate towards a person’s actual or perceived race, religious belief, sexual orientation, disability, political opinion or gender identity. The response to adults at risk experiencing hate crime will usually be to report the incident to the Police Service.

Self-Neglect and Self Harm

Is when a person seriously neglects his/her own care and welfare and putting him/herself and/or others at serious risk. The seriousness of this issue lies in the recognition that self-neglect in vulnerable persons is often not just a personal preference or a behavioural idiosyncrasy, but a spectrum of behaviours associated with increased morbidity, mortality and impairments in activities of daily living. Therefore, self-neglect referrals should be viewed as alerts to potentially serious underlying problems requiring evaluation and treatment (Naik et al, 2007).

Self-harm or self-neglect are not included within the definition of an 'adult in need of protection'. Each case will require a professional Health and Social Care (HSC) assessment to determine the appropriate response and consider if any underlying factors require a protection response. For example, self-harm may be the manifestation of harm which has been perpetrated by a third party and which the adult feels unable to disclose.

People wish to respect autonomy and may not wish to be intrusive. However, if concerned or aware of a significant negative change in behaviour, the Odyssey Group must consider making contact or alerting statutory services.

Adult Safeguarding Operational Procedures 2016

11.0 RECOGNISING ABUSE

Being alert to potential abuse plays a major role in ensuring that adults are safeguarded and it is important that all concerns about possible abuse are taken seriously and appropriate action is taken.

There are a variety of ways that you could be alerted that an adult is suffering harm:

- they may disclose to you;
- someone else may tell you of their concerns or something that causes you concern;
- they may show some signs of physical injury for which there does not appear to be a satisfactory or credible explanation;
- their demeanour/behaviour may lead you to suspect abuse or neglect;
- the behaviour of a person close to them makes you feel uncomfortable (this may include another staff member, volunteer, peer or family member); or
- through general good neighbourliness and social guardianship.

Adult Safeguarding Operational Procedures 2016

Recognising adult abuse is not easy. It is not our responsibility to decide whether or not adult abuse has taken place or if an adult is at significant risk of harm from someone. We do, however, have both a responsibility and duty, as set out in our adults safeguarding policy and procedures, to act in order that the appropriate agencies can investigate and take any necessary action to protect an adult.

Abuse can occur from:

- Parents/Carers;
- Intimate Partners;
- Friends;
- Adults in a position of trust;
- People within the wider family circle or neighbourhood;
- Strangers.

In general, there are 3 possible situations where staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors may need to respond to a concern or case of alleged or suspected abuse:

1. Responding to an adult disclosing abuse, i.e., an adult makes an allegation of abuse
2. Responding to allegations or concerns against staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors
3. Responding to allegations or concerns against any other person, i.e., parent, carer, other service user.

Abuse or harm occurs as much from omissions and lack of protection as from commission of actual acts of abuse. You should report any concerns you have for the welfare of adult at Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council to the Designated Safeguarding Officer using the Safeguarding Incident Form.

Health and Social Care Trust (HSCT) Adult Safeguarding Team teams should always be informed when there are reasonable grounds for concern that an adult may have been abused, or is being abused, or is at risk of abuse.

12. SAFEGUARDING ADULTS PROCEDURES

Stage 1 – Reporting or Raising Concerns

All staff, agency workers or volunteers
If concerns or allegations come to your attention
Do not investigate yourself

Listen, record what you witnessed, heard, or were told and record your actions

If the adult is in need of immediate protection from harm you must contact the PSNI, Ambulance, or the H&SCT Gateway team immediately.

Inform the Designated Safeguarding Officer at the earliest opportunity.

Write careful notes in the Safeguarding Incident Form of what you witnessed, heard, or were told.

Sign and date the form and give it to the Designated Safeguarding Officer

Timescale
Immediately

Non-Emergency Action

If the adult is not at risk of immediate harm, write careful notes of what you witnessed, heard, or were told on the Safeguarding Incident Form.

Sign and date the form and give it to the Designated Safeguarding Officer

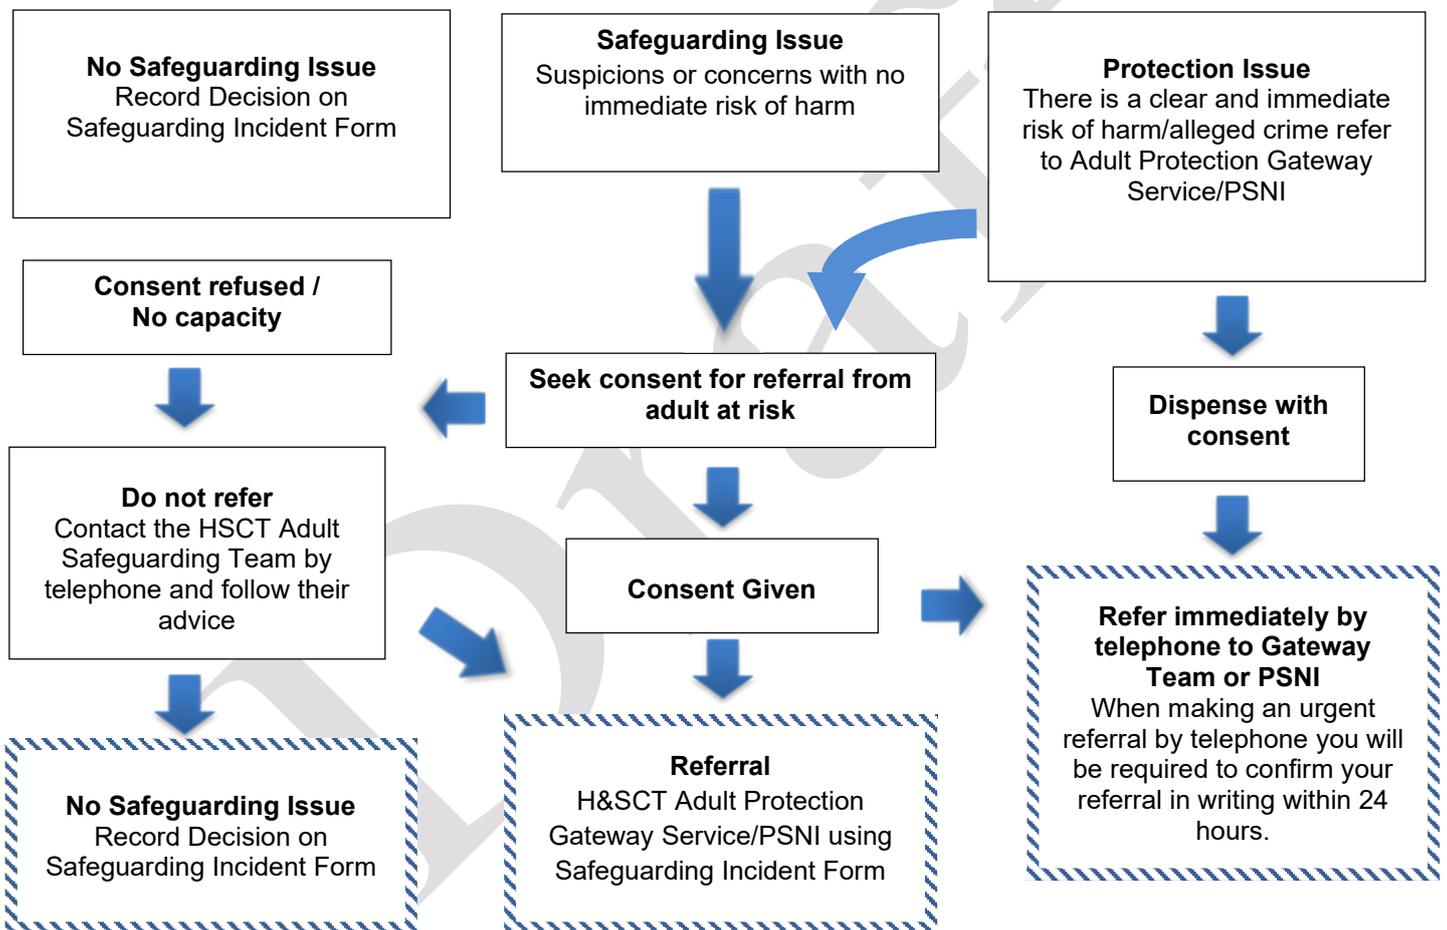

Timescale
As soon as possible
within 24 Hours

Stage 2 – Reviewing & Referring Concerns Designated Safeguarding Officers

On receiving the report of a concern, the Designated Safeguarding Officer must review the concern along with any other relevant information and decide, often in liaison with others including the adult at risk, what actions should be taken.

If you are unsure what action you should take seek advice and support from the Adult Gateway Team or PSNI.

If the adult at risk is in imminent danger of harm you should refer directly to the police or social services without delay.

Whatever your decision or outcome, you MUST:

1. Record in writing all actions taken, the reasons for these, and by whom the actions were taken.
2. Start a Safeguarding Case File (kept as per data protection guidelines)
3. Keep a full record of all actions and decisions
4. Ensure pastoral care is provided to staff / agency workers / volunteers as appropriate

You will need to provide as much detail as possible (adult's name, address, circumstances). Make sure you have this to hand when making a referral.

Stage 3 - Assessments and Enquiries Safeguarding Managers' & Authorities

The Designated Safeguarding Officer may attend strategy meetings and ensure that any recommendations made at that meeting are fed back to the relevant people within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council

The relevant social services team will commence an assessment and may decide to hold a strategy meeting. This is a meeting of professionals, such as police, education, social services and any other organisations. This may include Council's Safeguarding Managers'.

As a result of the information shared at the strategy meeting the police and/or social services may make further enquiries or assessments of the matter and will keep other agencies updated if necessary.

Stage 4 – Outcomes Safeguarding Managers' & Authorities

Council's Safeguarding Managers' should keep in touch with Social Services until the assessment and enquiries are concluded.

OUTCOME - NO FURTHER ACTION

If it is assessed that the concerns are unfounded Social Services may decide to take no further action.

In these circumstances, the adult or family may still receive support from Social Care Services or other agencies.

However, Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council may wish to proceed with their internal procedures.

OUTCOME - FURTHER ASSESSMENTS

Whatever the outcome by Social Services the situation will be discussed with HR and further risk assessments may be recommended. Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council may wish to proceed with their internal procedures.

Outcomes of any assessments and decisions by social services must be recorded along with any internal actions taken by Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.
If any new concerns arise a new referral should be made to the Gateway team.

Timescale
Ongoing

Responding to Allegations of or concerns against a member of staff, agency worker, elected member, or any other person

- Take all allegations or concerns seriously
- Record in writing on a Safeguarding Incident Form all the details that you are aware of as soon as possible.
- Report to and inform Council's Designated Safeguarding Officer as soon as possible
- The Designated Safeguarding Officer will inform the relevant persons, i.e., social services and / or the Police if appropriate
- The Designated Safeguarding Officer should inform the Head of OD/HR as soon as possible.
- Depending on the allegation, the individual may be asked to stand aside from duties or be temporarily suspended pending an investigation.

Safeguarding Concerns / Allegations about a Designated Safeguarding Officer

If the concern / allegation is about a Designated Safeguarding Officer, staff / agency workers / volunteers should refer such concerns to Council's Safeguarding Managers' and / or Head of Service (Sport & Wellbeing) who will follow the steps outlined above.

Concerns about failures to adhere to Safeguarding Policy and Procedures

If a Council employee / agency worker / volunteer has concerns about a colleague not fulfilling the requirements of Council's Safeguarding Policy and Procedures, these concerns should be taken to any member of Council's Designated Safeguarding Team. The Designated Safeguarding Officer should refer to Council's Safeguarding Managers'.

Support for External Service Providers

Should an external provider have any concerns regarding Council's staff / agency workers / volunteers, a visitor, or other contractor they should report their concerns immediately to one of Council's Designated Safeguarding Officers. There will always be a Designated Safeguarding Officer on duty in all areas, and they may be accessed via the Duty Manger.

If the concern is about a Designated Safeguarding Officer, External Service Providers should report their concerns to Council's Safeguarding Managers'

Dealing with Disclosures

When dealing with a disclosure you should follow the procedures for reporting safeguarding concerns but there are some extra considerations for you to take:

- Ensure the immediate safety of the person. If urgent medical / police help is required, call the emergency services.
- Stay calm and listen attentively: Avoid expressing your own views on the matter. A reaction of shock or disbelief could cause the person to 'shut down', retract or stop talking so try to stay calm.
- Express concern and acknowledge what is being said; They've told you because they want help and trust you'll be the person to believe them and help them
- Tell them it's not their fault. Abuse is never the person's fault, and they need to know this.
- Tell the person that s/he did the right thing in telling you; Reassurance can make a big impact to the person who may have been keeping the abuse secret.

It can be very hard for adults at risk to reveal abuse. Often, they fear there may be consequences. Some delay telling someone about abuse for a long time, while others never tell anyone, even if they want to. Adults at risk value being believed and taken seriously. It is vital that you act on what you've been told.

- Say you take them seriously. An adult at risk could keep abuse secret in fear they won't be believed or taken seriously. They've told you because they want help and trust you'll be the person to believe them and help them
- Don't talk to the alleged abuser. Confronting the alleged abuser about what the adult at risk told you could make the situation a lot worse for the adult at risk
- Explain what you'll do next. Explain to the adult at risk you'll need to report the abuse to someone who will be able to help.
- Let the person know that the information will be taken seriously and provide details about what will happen next, including the limits and boundaries of confidentiality
- Explain to them that it is your duty to share your concern with your Designated Safeguarding Officer unless to do so could increase their risk – i.e., the Designated Safeguarding Officer is the subject of the allegations. In this case contact Council's Safeguarding Managers'
- Reassure the person that they will be kept involved at every stage; explain that the Designated Safeguarding Officer will seek their consent before any referral is made to external agencies.
- If you think a crime has occurred be aware that medical and forensic evidence might be needed. Consider the need for a timely referral to the police service and make sure nothing you do will contaminate it;

- Complete a Safeguarding Incident form as soon as possible and report to your Designated Safeguarding Officer immediately.

DO NOT

- Stop someone disclosing to you
- Promise to keep secrets
- Criticise the alleged perpetrator
- Make promises about the future
- Use leading questions or put words in the person's mouth
- Press the person for more details or make them repeat the story
- Gossip about the disclosure or pass on the information to anyone who does not have a legitimate need to know
- Contact the alleged person to have caused the harm
- Attempt to investigate yourself
- Leave details of your concerns on a voicemail or by email

Don't delay reporting the abuse. The sooner the abuse is reported after a disclosure the better.

Report immediately to the Designated Safeguarding Officer. Complete a Safeguarding Incident Form and pass to the Designated Safeguarding Officer as soon as possible. The Designated Safeguarding Officer will take any immediate action required to ensure the adult at risk of harm is safe and make a decision as to when it is appropriate to speak with the adult at risk of harm about the concerns and any proposed actions.

How to Record a Disclosure

If someone discloses abuse to you, you must complete a Safeguarding Incident Form (see Appendix 3) and give it to your Designated Safeguarding Officer. If you have a literacy or language difficulties, the Designated Safeguarding Officer may assist you to complete the form but this must be acknowledged this on the incident form.

The Safeguarding Incident Form will be retained securely and confidentially by the Safeguarding Managers'. Safeguarding records will be retained with protected status as per GDPR guidelines.

When recording the disclosure, you must:

- Make a note, as soon as practical, of what the adult has said, using their own words.
- Describe the circumstances in which the disclosure came about. Take care to distinguish between fact, observation, allegation and opinion. It is important that the information you have is accurate; and,

- be mindful of the need to be confidential at all times, this information must only be shared with your Designated Safeguarding Officer and others only on a need to know basis.

Depending on the individual circumstances e.g., age of the adult, level of understanding, it may be necessary for an advocate to be present to enable the adult's voice to be heard more effectively. This might be the adult's group leader, carer or parent, unless she or he is the person of concern. If the supervising person is not available, another member of staff can be availed of to assist in representing the voice of the adult if appropriate. If the adult at risk is part of an organised group the Designated Safeguarding Officer will inform the group's leader and will make every effort to agree an appropriate course of action.

Consent and Capacity

It is important to include the adult at risk throughout the process and seek consent for any referral to social services or the PSNI unless the adult in need of protection is in imminent danger of harm. Designated Safeguarding Officers are not in the position to determine capacity of adults; if you are unsure if an adult is able to consent you should contact the H&SCT Trust Adult Safeguarding Team for advice and guidance. If an adult at risk does not want a referral made to the HSC Trust or PSNI, the Designated Safeguarding Officer must contact the Adult Safeguarding Team for advice and guidance about whether or not to make a referral. These factors will influence whether or not a referral without consent needs to be made:

- Do they have capacity to make this decision?
- Have they been given full and accurate information in a way which they understand?
- Are they experiencing undue influence or coercion?
- Is the person causing harm a member of staff, a volunteer or someone who only has contact with the adult at risk because they both use the service?
- Is anyone else at risk from the person causing harm?
- Is a crime suspected or alleged?

The H&SCT may determine that a referral without consent should be made and you should follow their instructions for making the referral.

If it is determined that the concern(s) do not meet the definition of an adult at risk or an adult in need of protection and a referral cannot be made without consent, the concerns raised must be recorded; including any action taken; and the reasons for not referring to H&SC Trust. In situations where the adult in need of protection is in imminent danger it may not be possible to discuss with them their wishes and obtaining a valid consent may not be achievable. Under these circumstances, staff / agency workers / volunteers should take whatever action they feel is appropriate to protect the adult in need of protection, including seeking medical and/or PSNI intervention.

Appendix 2: Safeguarding Adults Code of Behaviour

Considering varied activities across business units within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council it is recognised that it is not practical to provide definitive instructions that would apply to all situations at all times to guarantee the protection of adults at risk and staff / agency workers / volunteers. However, stated below are the standards of behaviour required of staff / agency workers / volunteers in order to fulfil their roles within Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council. This should assist in the protection of adults at risk and staff / agency workers / volunteers.

Staff / agency workers / volunteers must:

- Implement the Safeguarding Adults Policies and Procedures at all times
- Create a climate conducive to a positive experience, engaging with adults at risk, building up self-esteem, knowledge and skill
- Use positive and affirming language in communicating, show respect, and inclusiveness
- Maintain the well-being of adults at risk and their physical and emotional safety during their visit
- Be mindful of their language and behaviour while at work with regards to gender, sexuality, race, religion, class or political background.

Staff / agency workers / volunteers must never:

- Engage in rough, physical games, including horseplay, with members of the public at Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.
- Allow or engage in inappropriate physical contact of any kind
- Make sexually suggestive comments to members of the general public or other staff members, agency workers or volunteers at Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.

It is strongly recommended that staff / agency workers / volunteers / regular contractors do not, as part of their role, except in emergency situations:

- Have adults at risk on their own in a vehicle.
- Go into the toilet with adults at risk unless in exceptional circumstances to meet the needs of the adult and where another adult is present or gives permission (this may include a parent, teacher, group leader or carer).
- Spend time alone with an adult at risk unless clearly observed or seen by others.

Staff / agency workers / volunteers must learn to recognise vulnerable safeguarding situations. There may be times when it is impossible to avoid such situations, however, the decision by staff / agency workers / volunteers to place themselves in such a situation should be influenced by what is in the best interests of the adult at risk's welfare.

Physical Contact with Adults at Risk

As part of their role, staff / agency workers / volunteers should not have gratuitous or unnecessary physical contact with adults at risk or members of the general public who are visiting Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council.

However, there will be times when it is necessary and appropriate for staff / agency workers / volunteers to have some physical contact with adults at risk or the general public. This may be to:

- develop specific skills or techniques within an activity;
- treat an injury;
- meet the requirements of the activity;
- comfort a distressed adult or to celebrate their success.
- The main principles of appropriate physical contact are:
- Physical contact should always be with the adult's permission – resistance from an adult should be respected (depending on capacity of the adult and level of risk to the adult or others).
- Physical contact should always be in response to the adult's needs, i.e. physical safety, emotional well-being and educational guidance
- Do not do things of a personal nature for adults that they can do for themselves or that their parent/leader/carer can do for them.
- Adults should be encouraged to voice concerns they have if any physical contact makes them feel uncomfortable or threatened.
- Adults should explain the nature of and reason for the physical contact to the adult.
- Physical contact should always take place in an open or public environment and not take place in secret or out of sight of others.
- Physical contact with breasts, buttocks, or groin area should be avoided. If such parts of the anatomy require physical contact due to assistance in physical activities, others should be made aware.

If staff / agency workers / volunteers feel uncomfortable about the way an adult at risk has instigated physical contact, this should be discussed with their Designated Safeguarding Officer and recorded on a Safeguarding Incident Form.

Adults who need specific assistance due to disability or injury

In the case of an adult with a disability specific support or assistance may be required:

- Parents/carers or their delegated care providers should be asked to undertake all intimate or personal care tasks for the adult. This is not an appropriate role for staff / agency workers / volunteers.
- When adults with disabilities are lifted or manually supported, they should be treated with dignity and respect.
- Relevant health and safety guidelines must be followed to ensure the safety of the adult and those assisting.

Physical intervention

On rare occasions, it may be necessary to physically intervene with an adult without their permission to:

- Prevent physical injury of the individual or other visitors or staff / agency workers / volunteers or yourself
- Prevent an injury or accident from occurring
- Prevent damage to any property
- Prevent or stop the commission of a criminal offence.

In all circumstances, such physical intervention must be appropriate and reasonable; otherwise, your action can be defined as assault.

Implications for staff/volunteers

Staff / agency workers / volunteers who breach the code of behaviour will be subject to the disciplinary procedure. If an allegation against a staff member, agency worker or a volunteer has occurred, an investigation will be carried out in line with Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council disciplinary procedure. The investigating officer will be required to liaise with the Designated Officer to clarify if she/he has any relevant records of any other safeguarding information in relation to the individual. Where an overlap in the roles could jeopardise an investigation and or the principles of natural justice, HR will make a temporary appointment as is required. If the investigation finds that the member of staff has acted inappropriately or not acted in the best interests of the adult, the disciplinary procedure will be invoked.

NSPCC stands for the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. They are the leading children's charity in the UK, specialising in child protection and dedicated to the fight for every childhood. They are the only UK children's charity with statutory powers and that means they can take action to safeguard children at risk of abuse.

As the UK's leading child protection charity, we understand the child protection issues that people working with children and organisations can face.
