A Taste of Culture

A free celebration featuring international Arts & Crafts - Dance - Music - Food + Fun

Flowerfield Arts Centre

www.flowerfield.org

Welcome

Causeway Coast & Glens Borough Council's Good Relations department would like to welcome you to our Taste of Culture events.

We are opening the doors of your local shared space to provide you with an insight into the traditions and practises of a range of different cultures that add to the rich diversity that exists within our Borough.

This is a free event and promises to be a great day out for families and children to join us in creative, fun activities.

If you would like any further details, please contact a member of the Good Relations Team.

- A decorative background featuring several stylized hands of various colors (green, yellow, orange, red, pink, purple, blue) raised in the air, symbolizing diversity and community.
- All activities are free to attend, open to all ages and no experience is required to participate.
 - Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times.
 - The activities are designed to be taster drop-in sessions. So if a workshop is full, please visit another activity.
 - Please wear suitable clothing for exploring an open air site and for taking part in practical workshops.
 - If participating in dance workshops, please wear comfortable clothing and suitable footwear.
 - In the event of rain, outdoor activities will be temporarily suspended or moved indoors.
 - Limited car parking is available on-site. Please walk, cycle, use public transport or alternative car parks nearby.
 - We reserve the right to make changes to the advertised programme at any time.

Traditional Chinese Tea Ceremony

11:00am - 11:40am

Conference Room (1st Floor)

With Grand Master Zhu Chang Hai

A low-angle, shallow depth-of-field photograph focusing on the lower legs and feet of several people. The central figure is wearing light-colored, strappy high-heeled sandals and is captured mid-stride. To the left, another person's leg in a light-colored pant leg is visible. In the background, other people's legs in dark trousers and shoes are blurred. The floor is a dark, polished surface that reflects the light. The overall mood is dynamic and elegant.
