Welcome

Causeway Coast & Glens Borough Council's Good Relations department would like to welcome you to our Taste of Culture events.

We are opening the doors of your local shared space to provide you with an insight into the traditions and practises of a range of different cultures that add to the rich diversity that exists within our Borough.

This is a free event and promises to be a great day out for families and children to join us in creative, fun activities.

If you would like any further details, please contact a member of the Good Relations Team.

- A decorative background featuring several stylized hands of various colors (green, yellow, orange, red, pink, purple, blue) raised in a gesture of welcome or celebration. The hands are composed of geometric shapes, giving them a modern, artistic appearance.
- All activities are free to attend, open to all ages and no experience is required to participate.
 - Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times. Management reserve the right to refuse admission.
 - The activities are designed to be taster drop-in sessions. So if a workshop is full, please visit another activity.
 - Please wear suitable clothing for exploring outdoor activities and for taking part in practical workshops.
 - If participating in dance workshops, please wear comfortable clothing and suitable footwear.
 - In the event of rain, outdoor activities will be temporarily suspended or moved indoors.
 - Please walk, cycle, use public transport or public car parks nearby.
 - We reserve the right to make changes to the advertised programme at any time.
