Causeway Coast and Glens Community Centres

Who are our Community Centres for?

The Community Centres are open and available to everyone.

What can you do in the Community Centres?

The community centres offer flexible community space for:-

- Birthday Parties
- Christenings
- Community Meetings
- Exercise Classes or Training Personal Clients

Some of the centres have pitches and changing facilities, play facilities and multi-use games rooms and gyms.

Please contact the Community Centre directly for more information.

How do I book Community Centres?

Most of the Council Managed Community Centres can now be booked centrally, with two exceptions, Mosside and Sheskburn. The Council Owned Community Managed Centres can be booked directly by contacting the relevant centre. Please see our 'How to Book Page' for all the details you will need.

How many Council Community Centres are there?

There are 17 centres in total of varying sizes across the entire Borough that are available to book. Of these centres, 12 are directly operated and managed by Council, but another 5 are directly operated by Community and Voluntary organisations on behalf of Council. These are the centres in Ballybogey, Stranocum, Rasharkin, Greysteel and Magilligan.

How much does it cost to book a Community Centre?

The price varies slightly from area to area, and further information can be requested at time of booking.
