ENTERTAINMENT LICENSING REVIEW REPORT BY THE ENTERTAINMENT LICENSING GROUP

Background

In July 2014, Mark H Durkan MLA, Minister of the Environment announced a review of the entertainment Licensing regime in Northern Ireland. A working group of interest groups was tasked to review the current legislation (in place since 1985) and make recommendations on modernising changes that they considered should be made.

This group have proposed 36 recommendations which the Minister is seeking comment on.
